

Guaranty Bank Names Keith Hall President

The appointment of P. Keith Hall as president of Guaranty Bank of Torrance was announced on Monday by Henry Griswold, chairman of the board of directors of Guaranty Bank.

Hall resigned as vice president and manager of the Chula Vista branch of Security First National Bank of San Diego to accept the presidency of Guaranty Bank. He entered the employ of Security in 1942 and was elected assistant manager of the La Jolla Branch that year. In 1951 he was elected manager of the Chula Vista branch and elected vice president of the branch in 1956.

On Dec. 31, 1945, Hall was honorably discharged from the United States Army after having served in the finance department.

FOLLOWING HIS graduation from junior college at the San Diego Army and Navy Academy in 1937, Hall attended the University of Alberta for two years where he studied chemical engineering. Immediately prior to World War II he entered the banking business with Bank of America.

From 1955 to 1957 Hall attended the Graduate School of Banking of Rutgers University. In addition to this he also studied Land Title and Escrow Practices, Analyzing Financial Statements, and Commercial Law at the San Diego Chapter of the American Institute of Banking.

AMONG HIS many civic activities, he is a past president of Rotary, and the Chula Vista Chamber of Commerce, a d-past president of the board of trustees of the Chula Vista Community Church.

Hall is also past president of the La Jolla Credit Assn., past chairman of the Chula Vista Safety Council, past president of the Chula Vista Elementary School District, as well as past commander of the American Legion Post No. 275.

"I feel that Guaranty Bank of Torrance is indeed fortunate to have as president a man with the stature and background of Keith Hall," said Griswold.

"Mr. Hall's wide experience as a community leader and as an outstanding man in the banking business," Griswold continued, "mark him as one who can contribute immeasurably to the progress of both Guaranty Bank and the bay area community."

Kuchel Moves to Restore Funds for Weather Budget

U. S. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California moved yesterday to prevent a threatened halt in a long-range program to provide improved weather service for fire-fighters by appealing for a $200,000 item in the Weather Bureau's current year appropriation.

Following word that a House cut in the Weather Bureau funds will prevent planned establishment of additional stations, new equipment installation, and small staff increases, the Senior California Senator urged the Senate State-Commerce-Justice Appropriations Committee to restore to the money bill for those agencies an amount previously proposed in President Kennedy's budget.

He wrote Chairman Spessard Holland of his "dismay" that funds for the fire-weather program expansion were cut from the pending supply bill.

"While it is regrettable the improvements are not being effected as speedily as had been hoped, I feel it would be exceedingly unfortunate if the program should be abruptly interrupted by denial of further funds," the Assistant Republican leader wrote chairman Holland.

"THE NEED for the expanded and broadened service is widely recognized; the threat of severe losses through fires is ever-present; the prospective benefits from improved capability of the Weather Bureau are undeniable.

"The additional stations, personnel, and services are desperately required in our Western States, so susceptible to heavy losses through fires on the vast holdings of public lands, but the proposed program was national in scope."

THE SENATE approved a Weather Bureau program last year to establish 33 additional offices and step up operations at many other locations, under a plan which would affect 35 different states and was deformation on national problems.

"We are the only district in the county that does not now receive these services from its congressman. As a result, people are not informed as to where their representative stands. Moreover, by not returning to the district when he should," Bruinsma concluded, "our present congressman loses sight of the needs we have. This indifference is shown in his failing to vote or take a position on matters which will give us the progress we deserve."

"It is interesting to note," Bruinsma concluded, "that just today we received in the mail, at government expense, the first communication we have had from him since the last election. Times are too serious for this shabby treatment and this time the voters will recognize this political mailing for what it is."

Government-Paid Campaign Mailing Hit by Bruinsma

"You need a congressman who will keep in touch with your needs and thoughts on problems of the day," Ted Bruinsma, candidate for Congress, told the Lomita Rotarians at their meeting in Lomita this week.

"Any fast growing area has the right to expect their elected officials to keep themselves informed so that the development of the area will keep pace with its population."

BRUINSMAS, introduced by Rotarian Bill Cowan, who during the day had personally escorted him around the town's streets and business centers, pledged to the Rotarians that if elected he will establish a congressional office in the district where voters can bring their problems and views. He also stated that he will send out monthly bulletins giving his constituents up to date information on national problems.

Great Books Units Ready

Eight Great Books Discussion Groups in the South Bay area will begin their 1962-63 season in September and early October.

Meeting places and times for the groups are Series 1, Redondo Beach, alternate Wednesday mornings; Series 2, Palos Verdes Peninsula, alternate Thursday evenings; Series 3, Mira Costa High School, alternate Wednesday evenings; Series 4, Torrance, alternate Thursday evenings; Series 5, El Segundo, first and third Wednesday evenings of each month; Series 6, Redondo Beach, second and fourth Wednesday evenings of each month; Series 7, Manhattan Beach, first Saturday evening in each month.

nal Island is now in its third year.

Great Books Discussion Groups are conducted under the auspices of the Great Books Foundation, now celebrating its 15th anniversary. The Foundation was incorporated in 1947 as a not-for-profit organization to provide adults with a means for furthering their education in the liberal arts. The program now numbers 50,000 participants in 3,000 discussion groups in the United States, Canada, and 12 foreign countries.

ALL GREAT Books Discussion Groups are open to anyone wishing to participate and are free. The Great Books Foundation is supported by contributions from organizations and private individuals. The program is maintained largely by free services donated by members of groups.

Information about South Bay groups may be obtained by calling FR 9-0302. For other groups in the Los Angeles area call HO 6-4548.

THE SOUTH BAY District has the distinction of having the oldest Great Books Discussion Group in the Los Angeles Council and one of the oldest in the country. This group has been together for 14 years. Two local groups are in their sixth years and a group conducted by area leaders for inmates of the prison on Termini-
