"Of course I like football . . . what girl doesn't like to watch twenty-two gorgeous hunks of men!"

Gruver to Head National Supply

R. S. Gruver, vice president, personnel and public relations, Armco Steel Corp., will become vice president and general manager of Armco's National Supply Division on Oct. 1, Logan T. Johnson, president of Armco, has announced.

Gruver will make his headquarters at National Supply's offices in Pittsburgh. He succeeds S. A. Shuman, who has resigned.

Gruver, who joined Armco in 1925, has had broad operating and management experience. He served nine years in English and Welsh plants, was assistant manager of the Middletown Fabricating Plant, and was manager of the Ashland, Ky., Works from 1943 to 1949. He was elected vice president in charge of planning in 1952. In 1954 he was elected an administrative vice president and was given the personnel and public relations assignment in 1957.

Armco's National Supply Division is one of the world's largest manufacturers and distributors of oil field machinery and equipment. National Supply has plants at Gainesville and Houston, Tex., and Los Nietos and Torrance, Calif. It operates 120 field supply stores in the United States, and others in Canada and Venezuela.
