Fourth Annual Benefit

Stars Lend Motif For Club's Dance

Members of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will stage their fourth annual cocktail dance on Oct. 6 at the Fred Astaire Dance Studios in Torrance. Dancing to the theme of "Fantasy in Starlight" music, the members and their guests will be surrounded with a gay decor of stars, moon dust and silver clouds. Decorations chairman, Mrs. William Snur of Palos Verdes, has arranged for novel-studded favors to be presented to the ladies.

This gala affair held each fall provides the greater part of the funds contributed towards the club's philanthropic project. Every year the club adopts and supports a needy harbor family and this year's family, already chosen, has four pre-school youngsters, two of whom are twins.

Co-chairmen, Mrs. James Husereau, Torrance, and Mrs. Robert Jackson of Rolling Hills, have planned various novelty dances for the expected 150 members and their guests. During the evening Allen Bergendahl of the Astaire Dance Studios will teach the entire group the newest version of "The Twist," although dancing will include everything from the Charleston to date.

The evening's fun will be highlighted by two entertainment skits introduced by master of ceremonies Tom Bannan of Torrance. On the chorus line will be members Mmes. George Anderson, Howard De Castro, Ronald Eisman, James Husereau and Glenn Smith, who have somehow found time to be "chorus girls" along with their regular domestic responsibilities. They have promised to reveal their unique mothers' version of the Can-Can and the Hawaiian Hula. Fathers of Twins have managed to

Projects Outlined By Club

Torrance Terrace Garden Club opened its year of activities with a pot luck luncheon at the Torrance Park last Wednesday.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Homer Davis conducted a business meeting at which projects for the year were planned.

The group voted to assist with the gift shop at the new Harbor General Hospital. At the meetings, members will make items to be donated to the shop. They also planned to buy a Christmas tree for one of the hospital wards for the holidays.

A letter was read from the Silver Spur Garden Club inviting members to attend a garden tour Saturday. Several from the club accepted.

Club members set Nov. 14 for a membership meeting. Joe Littlefield, noted garden lecturer, will be featured speaker.

Next regular meeting of the Garden Club, the oldest in the area, will be held Oct. 10 at the home of Mrs. Fred Sandstrom, 2322 Eldorado St.

keep their act a secret even from their wives, but Ronald Eisman, James Husereau, Robert Mephram, Glenn Smith and John Watson are certain their surprise will score over any created by the women's chorus line.

Door prizes of imported champagne, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Marion Villicich of San Pedro, will be given and to add to the evening's festivities, two professional bartender-entertainers will dispense songs along with appropriate refreshments.

Five tables decorated with tiny stars and moons will be laden with refreshments prepared by Mrs. Fred Casstevens of Torrance and Mrs. John Adams of San Pedro and their committee.

Any mother of twins or triplets living in the South Bay or Harbor area, who is interested in obtaining further membership information about the club, is invited to call Mrs. Ronald Eisman of Torrance.

Visit Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb and family have returned to their home in Creswell, Ore., after spending a two-weeks vacation here with Mrs. Lamb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Minot Rugg on 214th St.

PLANNING DECOR . . . Using an "Alice in Wonderland" theme, members of Serra High School's Mothers Club are designing the decorations for the benefit fashion shows on Oct. 15 and 16 in the school gymnasium, 14830 S. Van Ness, Gardena. Studying their theme are, from left, Mmes. Clifford Tubbs, Clint Wiley and George Molinelli. Funds will go to the education of Marianist priests.

Alums Will Meet In Newport Beach

The Stuff Shirt restaurant at Newport Beach will be the setting Tuesday, Oct. 9, for the South Bay Alumnae of Delta Gamma fall luncheon. Social hour will begin at 11:30 a.m. followed by luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. Keith Redner.

Another activity of the South Bay Delta Gamma Alumnae is a monthly bridge group which met on Oct. 3 at the home of Mrs. Ted Littlefield of Palos Verdes Estates.

Guild to Meet For Luncheon

Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet at 12 noon on Oct. 10 for a luncheon at the Guild hall, Marcellina and Arlington. A business meeting at 2 p.m. will be conducted by Mrs. Katherine Lane, president.

Benefit For Marianist Order

Serra Mothers Present Wonderland of Fashion

Each guest, who attends Serra High School's eighth annual fashion show, will relive her youth as "Alice in Wonderland" when she views, through the magic mirror, the colorful "Wonderland of Fashions," the theme chosen for this year's double night performance. Dates selected of premium value and numerous door prizes. The first gift opportunity is a beautiful natural ranch mink stole valued at over $500. The second prize is a comfortable recliner chair and a portable typewriter is offered as third prize.

The proceeds from the annual fashion shows benefit some worthy cause for Serra. This year the profit from the shows will be donated to the Society of Mary in behalf of Serra High School. It will be used to further the college education of the priests and brothers of the Marianist Order which provides Serra with teachers. The Marianists have staffed Serra High School for the past 12 years, and the present high enrollment of 702 boys is drawn from a dozen Southland communities.

Mrs. H. R. Haslam, president of Serra's Mothers Club, announces that Mrs. C. H. Rout is the general chairman for the fashion show and Mrs. A. N. Illnicki is co-chairman.

Other chairmen are Mmes. Stanley Rymysa, ways and means; H. A. Rinaldi, gift opportunities; D. R. Guyso, advertising; P. H. Donahoe, tickets; J. Balogh, door prizes; Paul Bremmer, publicity; M. A. Nicoletti, souvenir programs; A. O. Valdez, social patrons; L. M. Moser, fashion coordinator; L. Bouitte, favors; Stanley Fishbeck, models.

Others are Mmes. F. Desimone, entertainment; Lucille Petersen, stage and ramp; R. Gianoni, decorations; F. Wilson, refreshments; C. Tubbs, hostess; Amelia Russo, set-up; W. McGuire, cleanup; G. Schmitz, treasurer; F. Ristea, secretary; and W. R. Deans, wardrobe.

Volunteer fathers include the following chairmen: Jack Sullivan, coordinator; Al Compean, prizes, John Redner, set-up, J. Rout and L. Meyer, social hour refreshments; Chuck Seniger and A. Valdez, advertising; Dick Gracy, cleanup; Al Deravin and T. Evans, kitchen; and Leo McElroy, social patron.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'Conquer Feelings Of Inadequacy . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: Please, please help me. I am a jealous and possessive woman and I hate myself for it.

Whenever my husband is a few minutes late from work I put him through the third degree. I make him account for every second of his time and naturally he resents it. Who wouldn't? I'm constantly making phone calls to make sure he's where he said he'd be.

He is a wonderful person and a perfect husband: I have no reason to distrust him. I know I'm dead wrong. If I don't get control of myself soon I'm going to lose a terrific man. Am I crazy? Can you help me?—IN DESPAIR

Dear In Despair: You have the battle two-thirds won. First, you recognize your problem and accept responsibility for your actions. Second, you are fully aware that jealousy is corrosive and destructive and you do not underestimate the dangers.

Now, get professional help. You must conquer your feelings of inadequacy and get off the attack.

Dear Ann Landers: You've had many letters in your column about borrowing, but since we moved to this city we've encountered a breed of borrowers unmatched anywhere.

My husband is a bug on garage and garden tools. Everyone who knows him is aware that he has the finest assortment in town. Max is big-hearted and enjoys lending things. But people take advantage of him.

It's reached the point where our neighbors don't even come to the door and ask if they can use this or that. They just walk in and take whatever they want. If my Max needs a tool and it's missing he doesn't know where to look for it.

When we leave town for a few days it's not uncommon to find the garage window pried open because someone decided to help himself. What can be done about this?—QT.

Dear QT: You can call it "borrowing" if you wish, but prying open windows and taking tools without the knowledge of the owner is called "stealing" where I come from.

If Max wants to put an end to this nonsense he can put bars on the garage windows and learn to say no to anyone who fails to return a tool within 24 hours.

Dear Ann: The letter from the 13-year-old girl who missed her divorced dad (Continued on Page 18)

'Pink Carnation' Ball Epsilon Sigma Benefit

Executive board of Mira Costa Regional Council of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, International Sorority, held a joint meeting recently with the presidents of all member chapters of the council to discuss and make final arrangements for the fourth annual "Pink Carnation" ball.

The Ball will be held on Oct. 6 at Lakewood Country Club, 3101 E. Carson, Lakewood, and all proceeds will go to the California State philanthropic project. The Mira Costa Regional council members are exceptionally proud of the fact that the Pink Carnation Ball for the past three years has enabled them to win an award at the annual state convention for the largest contribution made to Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation.

The enthusiastic chairman, Tina Smith, junior past president, is exerting every effort to make the dance this year

Susan Lamping Becomes Bride of Larry E. Hagen

In a four o'clock ceremony at the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes on Sept. 15, Miss Susan Kay Lamping, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ritchie, 4037 Via Valmonte, Palos Verdes, became the bride of Larry Eugene Hagen. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hagen, Rolling Hills.

Rev. Ronald Hargis, pastor, officiated at the marriage, and the nuptial music was played by Mrs. T. Graham.

Mr. Ritchie escorted the bride to the altar. She wore a gown of nylon organza detailed with a Sabrina neckline and long sleeves. The full skirt, ornamented with sequined lace appliques, fell into a chapel train. A princess tiara held her illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of white stephanotis.

Miss Robert Lamping was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Dana Wilson, Cheryl Davis, Lynn Freund, and Sandra Schroeter. The attendants wore pink chiffon gowns and each carried a French line of pink carnations.

Flower girls were Karen Johnson and Kathryn Johnson. Their dresses were of pink organza.

Barry Leisure stood as best man and ushers were Ronald Sims, John Toomey, Larry Stearns and Robert Sponheim.

A reception was held at the church. Miss Dorothy Fisher registered the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Carmel and San Francisco and are now living in San Pedro.

The bride was graduated in June from Palos Verdes High School.

Her husband, who attended Narbonne High, is owner and manager of Norm's Landing in San Pedro.

Golden Wedding Bells Ring for Ralph Wises

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph V. Wise, 2223 255th St., Lomita, were honored at a reception on Sunday, Sept. 27 in celebration of their Golden Wedding anniversary.

The reception, which was held in the recreation hall of the Harbor City-Lomita Methodist Church, where the Wises have been members for the past 15 years, was given by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Beattie, of Rolling Hills Estates.

The honored guests have lived in the South Bay area since their early teens. They met in Redondo. Fifty years ago last Sunday, they rode the big red streetcar from Redondo Beach to Santa Ana and were married in the Methodist parsonage there. Following the wedding, they boarded a train for San Diego for a honeymoon.

After 40 years of service, Mr. Wise retired from the General Electric Co. in 1956. At the time of his retirement, he was a turbine installation specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Wise are active in their church and civic affairs. Mr. Wise is treasurer of the Methodist Men's group and Mrs. Wise is active in the Women's Society. They are past worthy matron and past worthy patron of the Carnation Chapter 171, Order of the Eastern Star in Redondo Beach. Mr. Wise is a member of the Long Beach Masonic Lodge 327.

Besides their one daughter, Mrs. Beattie, they have four grandchildren. Janet, a senior at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, came to attend the celebration. Other grandchildren on hand for the party were Ralph, a freshman at Palos Verdes High School; Scott, a kindergarten pupil at Valmonte, and two-year-old Brent.

Mrs. Floyd Bond of Long Beach and Mrs. George Morgan of North Hollywood, sisters of Mr. Wise, presided at the beautifully appointed tea table. The table was centered by a three-tiered anniversary cake decorated with wedding bells, white doves and gold leaves. Tall gold candelabras flanked the cake. Large white baskets of greenery were used at vantage points in decorating.

Over 100 guests signed the anniversary book. Among the out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Tharp, of Seattle, Wash., cousins of Mrs. Wise, and Mrs. Everna Faircloth of Roswell, N. M., cousin of Mr. Wise.
