Chace Opposes Move To Add Supervisors

"A pig in a poke awaits Los Angeles County voters should they approve Proposition 'D' on the November ballot — the costly measure which would increase the County Board of Supervisors from its present five to seven members!"

This was the statement yesterday by Supervisor Burton W. Chace as he urged defeat of the issue by the electorate Nov. 6.

In asserting his opposition to the proposal, Chace charged that "there has been no need demonstrated, either by public demand or requirements of government, to add two supervisors."

"PASSAGE of Proposition 'D' would result in a costly mistake," Chace warned, pointing out that a majority of the board has joined the ranks of various civic groups to turn down the measure.

"Despite the rising population throughout the county, the rapid incorporation of cities through the past few years have reduced the supervisors' work-load," Chace stated. "There has been absolutely no show of enthusiasm shown at the grass-roots level that our citizens would get any more, or any better representation from a larger board."

Thrifty Drug Contest Near Closing Date

Thrifty Drug Store officials issued a reminder yesterday that the spectacular "200th Store Contest" closes at midnight, Oct. 23. All entry blanks must be deposited before that time to be eligible to win one of the 336 valuable prizes. Entry blanks may be obtained free at every Thrifty Drug Store in the entire chain. Simply fill in your name and address and deposit the blank in the entry box. Winners will be selected in a Nov. 1 prize drawing.

Included in the list of 336 prizes are 23-inch television sets; boys and girls bicycles; binoculars; a stereo console with AM-FM multiflex tuner; record albums; and garbage disposers.

The contest costs nothing to enter, and you can enter as many times as you wish. Entry blanks are available at all Thrifty Drug Stores.

"Enter the '200th Store Contest' now before the Oct. 23 closing date," officials said.

Navy Pledges Holiday Off To Recruits

The Bureau of Naval Personnel, Department of the Navy, announced that Christmas and New Year leave will be granted to young men who are undergoing recruit training at the Naval Training Center at San Diego.

Under this new policy, young men who have completed the first four weeks of recruit training prior to Dec. 22 will be eligible for fourteen days holiday leave to be counted as the recruit leave ordinarily given at the completion of the nine week recruit training period.

For further information concerning this program contact Chief Roth, local Navy recruiter, at 1520 Cravens Ave., or telephone him at FA 0-3141.

Partnerless Parents to Seat Officers

New officers of Parents Without Partners, an educational, as well as social organization, for any single parent living in the southern part of Los Angeles County, will be installed Friday at 8 p.m. in the Empire Room of the Breakers International Hotel, Long Beach. A. H. Health, executive director of Family Counseling Service in Long Beach, will discuss the "Impact on Children in the Single Parent Home."

The PWP Halloween party will be held Oct. 27 in Wilmington for members and their families. Bernard Stinton will be among the entertainers. Reservations, through Ammie Chism, HA 5-5679, are necessary to attend.

Bowling, sponsored by PWP, will also be held Oct. 27, at Java Lanes in Long Beach. Members may invite friends.

Garden Checklist

1. Study the rose garden this month and uproot any bushes that have not given satisfaction. Turn the soil and let it air out until new varieties arrive on the market in December.
2. Start planting daffodils, bulbous iris and lilies as they arrive in nurseries.
3. Scatter snail pellets around newly planted winter annuals.
4. Many spring and summer perennials are available as seedlings this month.
5. Check nurseries for varieties of the early flowering Sasanqua camellias. They start showing color in October.
