why...
an electric dryer is your best buy!

When you buy a Flameless Electric Dryer you'll get more for your money any way you look at it. Here are a few of the outstanding savings that will be yours:

You'll save on initial cost. A Flameless Electric Dryer costs less to buy—up to $50 less than other types.

You'll save on installation costs. With the 120 volt model, there's no special wiring or installation needed—you just plug it in! And be sure to ask your appliance dealer about the high speed 240 volt models, too.

You'll save on operating and maintenance costs. Modern Electric Dryers cost so little to operate on low, Edison rates—only pennies a load! And because they have far fewer parts than other types, you save on maintenance.

You'll save wear and tear on your clothing budget. Only gentle, flameless electric drying keeps clothes cleaner, whiter, fluffier, with no baked-in wrinkles or yellowing caused by overheating or sun-drying.

To make your best buy, see your appliance dealer. He'll be glad to give you all the details about a modern, Flameless Electric Dryer for your home and family.
