Christmas Tree Symbols Denotes Birth of Christ

"Open God's Gifts Now," "The Redeeming Light in the Night." will be the sermon theme for Christ the King Lutheran Church, 2706 W. 182nd St., Sunday at 8:30 and 11 a.m. The church will celebrate the Savior's birth beginning at the special Christmas communion services. The annual Christmas Eve candlelight and carol service begins at 11 p.m. Monday with the sermon theme, "HEAVEN AND EARTH in a Manger," will be the sermon at the 11 a.m. Christmas Day Festival Worship. The Savior's birth will also be proclaimed in music at the various services by the five choirs of the church under the direction of Janet Myren, Ellen Strumpfer and Fred Wilkins. The organist is Bill Otis. The pastor is the Rev. Maynard V. Midthun.

Church Goodies Taken by Thief

Candy and ice cream which was to be used for a church event was stolen recently from the unlocked garage of Donald J. Spencer, 5028 Stevann St. Spencer told police the candy and ice cream, valued at $50 was to be picked up by a church member.

GOLDEN RULE

One of the best ways to display the Christmas spirit, says the Automobile Club of Southern California, is to yield the right of way in traffic. Failure to yield the right of way contributes to many traffic accidents.

Proclaiming the birth of Christ in a special and unique way is an unusual Christmas tree which has been decorated only in symbols of Jesus Christ. THE IDEA originated in the Lutheran Church of the Ascension of Danville, Va. The almost 200 symbols on the tree were made by hand by the Altar committee and the women of the church under the direction of Rose Mary Ulland, the parish worker.

During the week of Christmas the church will be open to give others the opportunity for meditation and to see the "Christmas Tree."

CHRISTMAS SYMBOLS . . . Rose Mary Ulland, parish worker, and the Rev. Maynard V. Midthun of the Christ the King Lutheran Church admire a Christmas tree decorated only in symbols of Jesus Christ. There are almost 200 symbols on the tree.

'Eve of Grace' Presented by Local Church

"The Eve of Grace," a Christmas cantata, will be presented by the Chancel Choir of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., Sunday at 7 p.m. The cantata text was arranged by Van Tassel Stuphen and the music composed by J. Sebastian Matthews. Ralph L. Mills, minister of music at the Calvary Baptist Church will conduct the choir and Lin Jacobson will accompany at the organ.

Soprano soloists will be Barbara Bareford, Kay Bareford, Joy Ciniero, and Martha Lacy; tenors, Bob Bareford, Don Gaede; baritone soloist, Rod Spencer.

Other sopranos will be Claudia Bell, Sunny Connelly, Jerry Levenson, Myra Rogers, Donna Thomas, and Alice Worden. Altos will be Beverly Bishop, Pamela Cable, Marabel Chapman, Thelma Day, Sally Day, Virginia Derry, Rozella Mills, Lillian Sabol, and Myra Dean Thompson.

Other tenors will be Albert Gordon, Charlie Harrison and Dave Thomas. Other basses will be D. W. Derry, Stan Johnson, Walter Kaestner, Clyde Mitchell, Nate Sutton, and Henry Van der Heide.

Pastor H. Earl Kuester will deliver his Christmas sermon at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. dual services. It will be entitled "The Holy Spirit in Christmas." The old familiar carols "O Come All Ye Faithful" and "Joy to the World," will be sung by the congregation. The choir and solo parts will be specially arranged Christmas numbers as well.

Adventist Church to Sponsor 'Silent Stars'

"The Silent Stars" will be the theme of a Christmas telecast on the "It Is Written" television series Saturday, at 7:30 p.m., on KCOP, Channel 13, and Sunday, at 12:30 p.m., on KTLA, Channel 5, according to an announcement made today by Pastor Manson Metcalf, of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Pastor Metcalf said exclusive film sequences of the sun, stellar systems, and earth as seen from outer space will be shown as George Vandeman, narrator, probes for answers to "What are the stars, and who made them?"

Temple Fetes Youth Groups

Temple Menorah of Redondo Beach celebrated "Jewish Youth Week" by honoring the members of the Jewish youth groups affiliated with the Temple, at the Sabbath services Friday night. Michael Cole, president of the Menorah Federation of Temple Youth, for Jewish youth, ages 15 to 18, introduced the members of his organization who gave sermonettes during the worship.

Gary Johnson, Ellen Kogan, and Seth Alpert spoke on various aspects of Jewish youth activities in greater Los Angeles and Southern California.

Services for the evening were conducted by Rabbi Henri E. Front, spiritual leader of the Temple, and assisted by cantor Harry Newman and the Temple Menorah Choir under the direction of Fay Newman, organist.

An Oneg Shabbat concluded the evenings worship.

"The Silent Stars" is one in a series of telecasts which seek to relate the finding of modern astronomers, archaeologists, and other research scientists to man's eternal search for meaning to his own life, and understanding of God. "We believe this telecast should be especially appropriate to this Christmas season," stated Pastor Metcalf. "Its attempt to bring man closer to his Creator is really what Christmas is all about." The "It is Written" telecast is sponsored by the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church.

SECTS APPEAL

59 Persons Join Church

Fifty-nine new members were received recently into Christ the King Lutheran Church.

Confirmed in the church at 2706 W. 182nd St., were Betty Lou Backers, Larry E. Stevens, John C. Leneker, Edward G. McKiernan, Harold O. Spang and Joyce B. Spang.

A briefing session and informal reception was held for the new group. Taking part were Warren Bachmann, congregation president; Rose Mary Ulland, parish worker; Mrs. Bill Sands, Sunday School superintendent; Mrs. Bill Tralle, president of the ALCW, Mike Bankson, chairman of the Board of Deacons and the Rev. Maynard Midthun.

Highlighting the evening was a series of slides depicting the history, the worship, the fellowship and the service of the congregation. The slides and the accompanying tape were prepared by John Demeter, assisted by Norval Thompson and Janet Myren. Narration for the tape was given by Frank Andersen against the background of beautiful music. Refreshments were served by the Ruth Circle with Mrs. Paul Schmitz acting as chairman.
