

Armed Forces

Ross B. May of Lomita has been promoted to technical sergeant in the United States Air Force.

Sergeant May, a supply inspector, is assigned to the 3906th Materiel Squadron.

The sergeant, a graduate of Narbonne High School, Lomita, is the son of Mrs. Mammie C. May, 110 Strawberry Drive Mill Valley, Calif. He and his wife, the former Darlene J. Scheel of 539 S. Franklin, Anthony, Kan., have a son, Steven.

Duane M. Sandland, fireman, son of Mrs. Marion Faver, 3905 Sepulveda Blvd., and Lon N. Baker, seaman apprentice, son of Mrs. A. J. Weber of 165 W. 223rd St., are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger, operating in the Western Pacific with the Seventh Fleet.

The Ranger is part of American seapower abroad, an instrument of national policy and goodwill. The ship is scheduled to visit ports in Japan, Okinawa, the Philippines and the British Crown Colony of Hong Kong.

COMMISSIONED . . . Gerald J. Palbicki of Winona, Minn., has been commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Air Force upon graduation from officer training school at Lackland AFB, Tex. He is married to the former Carole A. Stevenson of 410 Calle de Arboles.

Army PFC Kenneth C. Sutherland of Rolling Hills, participated with other members of the 12th Cavalry in Exercise Sabre Knot in Germany. The training ended Dec. 8.

The week-long field training maneuver, designed to test winter combat readiness, involves approximately 30,000 troops.

Sutherland is assigned as a tank loader in the cavalry's Troop D in Budingen, Germany.

The 20-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Sutherland, 2219 Carriage Dr., entered the Army in November 1961 and completed basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif.

He is a 1960 graduate of Narbonne High School in Harbor City.

TRAINS IN FIELD . . . Marine private Arthur R. Grant, Sr., of 2041 Kathy Way, completed four weeks of individual combat training Dec. 14 with the second infantry training regiment at Camp Pendleton. The training provides experience in the field under combat conditions.

AIR POLICEMAN . . . Airman basic Ronald B. Greene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon M. Greene, 22744 Date Ave., has been selected to attend the United States Air Force technical training course for air policemen at Lackland AFB, Tex.

David R. Goosey, seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas R. Goosey Sr., of 1568 W. 222nd, and Charles J. Feidner, seaman, son of Mrs. E. R. Watts of 22325 S. Main St., are serving aboard the dock landing ship USS Monticello, a member of Amphibious Squadron Five operating out of San Diego.

The Monticello is one of the Navy's modern amphibious ships with the capacity of carrying numerous assault crafts, troops, and helicopters. She is scheduled to return to her homeport late this month, after spending six months with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

LEATHERNECK . . . Marine private Baird A. Sewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sewell of 16506 Spinning Ave., became a veteran of Marine combat training Dec. 14, after undergoing live-firing exercises, field trips and classroom lectures for a period of four weeks. Sewell is stationed at Camp Pendleton.

Battle of the Bands Auditions Scheduled

Auditions for the fourth annual Battle of the Bands will be held at El Camino College at 4 p.m., Jan. 31. The annual Hollywood Bowl festival will be held on June 28.

Southwest youngsters who participate in musical activities are eligible to compete in the auditions. Competition for dance bands, school dance bands, combos, soloists, and vocal groups are planned. The preliminary contests will be held during March and April in Los Angeles area high schools.

The annual event is sponsored by the Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation.
