Bethel 50 Installs In Colorful Service

Miss Carole Woodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Woodman, 1333 Engracia, and a senior at Torrance High School, was installed as Honored Queen of Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, at its 71st semi-annual installation held Saturday, Dec. 8, at the Torrance Masonic Temple.

Serving with Miss Woodman will be Midge David, senior princess; Robin DuBe, junior princess; Karen Halquist, guide; and Judy Osborne, marshal.

Installing officers were past honored queens, Nadine Horstfall, Patty Mahler, Jerry Hanson, Georgia Powell, Jeanette Wright, Bonnie Oberbeck, Pat Ouwendijk and LaVerne Lewis.

The program opened with the entrance of Mrs. Barbara Polliard, guardian, and Leonard Babcock, associate guardian. Frank Paour served as master of ceremonies. Installing honored queen was Patti Fowler.

Miss Sally Crabtree, soloist, sang "23rd Psalm," "A Dream Is a Wish Your Heart Makes" and "The Lord's Prayer." Rev. Walter Stanton gave the invocation and Frank Paour gave the welcome.

The choir and officers were then installed and during the coronation, Miss Crabtree sang "When You Wish Upon a Star." "Dreams" was the theme of the impressive ceremony and was effectively carried out in the decorations.

Appointive officers installed were Betsy Foster, musician; Cheri Hanson, recorder; Trudy Blair, chaplain; Roberta Meyers, senior custodian; Linda Hawley, junior custodian; Dorothy Schriever, Margaret Hayes, Suzi Ulrich, Anita Foster and Rozanne Meredith, messengers; Cathy Urkovich, librarian; Robin Major, treasurer; Jackie Bonowitz and Gail Kerns, guards.

Others appointed were Eva Kahn, assistant recorder; Donna Easley, electrician; Eleanor Westfall, obligation chairman, and Cynthia Bailey, banner bearer.

On the Guardian Council are Mrs. Barbara Polliard, guardian, Leonard Babcock, associate guardian; Mrs. Carolyn Hedrick, secretary; Mrs. Betty Meredith, treasurer; Mrs. Helen Moore, director of music; Mrs. Eunice Crabtree, promoter of hospitality; Mrs. Vera Ulrich, epochs; Mrs. Frances Dowdy, philanthropy; and William Ulrich, fraternal relations.

A reception and dance followed the installation. Hostesses were Misses Marilyn DeVore and Kathy Logan. Miss Carol Waggoner was in charge of the guest book.

Serving as ushers were Torrance DeMolays Gary Glady, Bob Dowdy and Steve Simpson.

St. Philomena Women Install New Officers

New officers to serve St. Philomena Women's Council for the coming year were installed at a meeting of the council, held Dec. 17 in the school hall.

The retiring officers were first presented with humorously clever reminders of their two years they served as officers. Later however, they were awarded gold pen and pencil sets as tokens of appreciation for their devoted service. Those retiring from office were Mmes Clarence Turner, president; Edward Germany, first vice president; William Cary, second vice president; Ray Mathys, secretary; Don Mead, treasurer; and Gene LeRoy, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Samuel Consalvo, chairman of the installation committee, then installed the newly-elected officers. They were Mmes Mike Marinovich, president; James Donovan, first vice president; Richard Tracy, second vice president; John Scanlin, secretary; Jack Ramey, treasurer; and Clarence Turner, parliamentarian. Each was presented with a beautiful red carnation corsage.

Mrs. Consalvo was assisted on her committee by Mmes Charles Bent Jr., Leo Dube, and Floyd Shaude.

Holiday Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Trezise, daughter Leslie, sophomore at Arizona State at Flagstaff, and Barry, a sophomore at Mesa High School, left Friday for their home in Mesa, Ariz., after spending the Christmas holidays here with Mrs. Trezise's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears and other relatives.

A. L. Pyeatts Food Course Offered Dinner Hosts

Christmas day dinner guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Pyeatt, 24 Caballeros Rd., Rolling Hills, were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Garland and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pyeatt, all of Torrance. To meet the many inquiries and requests for a course in food preparation and meal planning, the Home Economics Department of El Camino College will offer a course in contemporary food next semester.

The course is open to women and men who have had experience in food preparation. "I have had men in class before and they just love to work with foods," Mrs. Hazel Kuehn, course instructor stated.

Areas to be covered are food preparation, time management in meal planning and preparation, money management, food purchasing and nutrition. "In the course, we will try to encourage people to use more ideas and not to hide behind old patterns," Mrs. Kuehn said.

The course will be offered

Monday and Wednesday evenings from 8-10 p.m. Classes start Jan. 30.

Persons wishing to register are encouraged to do so not later than Jan. 28 in the Registration Office.

Fish Dinner Friday Eve

A Fish Fry Dinner will be served tomorrow, Friday, at the Nativity Annex, corner of Arlington and Engracia, from 5 to 8 p.m. Pat Reid and Bob Lewellen, who served a delicious dinner last month, will again serve as "chief cooks." Parish organizations will help in the preparation and serving.

Everyone is invited to attend. Prices are reasonable with special arrangements for large families.

Proceeds of the event will go to the building fund.
