

West High Elects School Officers

JANUARY 24, 1963 THE TORRANCE HERALD 3

Harry Howell, president; Janet Speaks will lead the girls as president of Girl's League. On Janet's cabinet will be Ruth Emrich, vice president; Shirley Loyd, secretary-treasurer; Peggy Hughes, historian; Carolyn Wenzel, senior representative; Delaine Couchman, junior representative; and Midge Proffitt, sophomore representative.

Eddie Hamilton was elected as president of the Associated Student Body at West High School this week during the school's first student body election.

Six other student body officers were elected to support Eddie. Joe Easton will serve as vice president; Gayle Kirkland, secretary of records; Gale Little, secretary of finance; Kay Mays, secretary of activities and club coordination; and Sherrie Sell, secretary of publicity and morale.

OFFICERS for the four classes were elected at the same time. The senior class will be led by Nancy Shartle, president; Jane Lewis, vice president; Cheryl Stile, secretary; and Peggy Lowry, treasurer.

The junior class chose Linda Knox, president; Lynn Shook, vice president; Leslie Gardner, secretary; and Ann Patterson, treasurer.

Voting for sophomore class officers resulted in the election of Margo Redford, president; Walt Ramsen, vice president; Pamela Haymen, secretary; and Sheldon Edner, treasurer.
