

ESPECIALLY FOR YOU!
There's nothing more refreshing and delightful than really fresh orange juice, made especially for you! No artificial coloring or flavoring — just the fresh-fruit flavor and all the natural vitamins. In spite of the recent citrus freeze, we have a plentiful supply, and although we've had to raise the price a bit, we believe you'll say it's worth it!

FRESHLY MADE ORANGE JUICE

"He's showing off... he never catches any!"

HOLLYWOOD — MIKE'S THURSDAY MAILBAG—

Dear Mike: A friend of mine bet me $50 that Sabrina, the English actress, has larger measurements than Jayne Mansfield. To settle it, we wrote to both actresses. Jayne wrote back that her measurements are: Bust, 41 inches; waist, 20 inches; hips, 35 1/2 inches. Sabrina wrote back that hers are 41 1/2-18-36. Our letters to the actresses were identical. Neither mentioned a bet of any kind or gave any evidence that one was competing with the other. On the strength of these letters, I lost the $50. I wrote to Jayne about this matter. She wrote back that she personally feels Sabrina is not as large as Sabrina claims, and I agree with Jayne. I want your unbiased opinion on the comparisons and I am writing to you at Jayne's suggestion. — Bob Jensen, Atlanta, Ga. (OC: Jayne Mansfield).

Dear Eddie: Only his barber and Tonto—really know.
Sir: Did "The Music Man," Robert Preston (its star) or Morton DaCosta (its director) get an Academy Award nomination? I'm going to quit going to movies if they don't because it had the best acting and direction of the year—Roland Ottenburger, Etowah, Ala.

Dear Roland: No, but only because the nominations are not in yet. The Academy will mail the nomination blanks to its members next Thursday. They must be returned by Feb. 12. The nominees will be announced Feb. 23. The Oscar presentations will be made April 8.

Dear Mike: Is Vivian Vance's real name Ethel Mertz? — Grace L. Mertz, Delta, Colo.

Dear Grace: No, and she's not really married to Bill Frawley, who's not really Fred Mertz. Vivian was recently married to a publisher, after divorcing actor Phillip Ober. She is now Mrs. John Dodds.

Dear Mr. Connolly: What's happened to Gale Storm? She was always one of my favorites, so clean-cut and "All-American" and charming. — Art Novak, Tullahoma, Tenn.

Dear Art: Gale is living in semi-retirement with her husband, insurance executive Leo Bonnell, and their four children. She will soon film the pilot for a new series at Desilu that deals with the Space Age.

Dear Mike: I keep reading that Mitzl Gaynor is doing "Three on a Match," "Three-Way Match" and "For Love or Money." Is she doing three different pictures or are they all the same and, if so, why so many titles? — Jean Hushins, Coshocton, Ohio.

Dear Jean: They are all the same picture and it's just as confusing to the studio publicity department as it is to you. Usually the first title is known as the working title. It was changed, in this particular case, because another studio was preparing "Three on a Couch" and sued to stop Mitzl's studio from using the too-similar title.

Dear Nancy: Clint Walker won his lawsuit to get out of Warner-TV because he wants to make movies. The studio people tell me there won't be any reruns. That means Clint won't be getting any of those luscious residuals that enrich so many actors. I hope he gets a movie right away. I wouldn't want the poor guy to starve.
