TOUR FACILITIES . . . Management officials of Sears Torrance recently toured the underground storage facilities of the Southern California Gas Co. in Playa del Rey and heard utility executives explain how natural gas is stored 6,000 feet underground in the nearly depleted oil field during seasons of light use to be available when heavy demands are made. Shown here (from left) are George Gaugler, Owen Day, Harry Bollman, and Don Stage of Sears who are receiving the briefing from Hint Ellis of the utility.
