

Parking Ban Set On Lomita Street

In an effort to reduce traffic congestion, the Board of Supervisors has banned automobile parking along a 1,600-foot strip of Narbonne Avenue near Pacific Coast Highway. Signs will be posted by the County Road Department, Supervisor Burton W. Chace recommended the restriction in view of potential traffic hazard along the narrow portion of Narbonne as it nears Coast Highway.

Bar Group To Install Catterlin

Members of the South Bay Bar Assn. will install Charles F. (Monte) Catterlin as president in ceremonies scheduled for 8 tonight at the Polynesian Restaurant. Catterlin will succeed attorney Eric Rafter in the post.

Catterlin, prosecutor for the city of Torrance, will head a slate of officers which include James Barrett, first vice president; Raymond Choate, second vice president; Fred W. Benson, secretary; and John Barry, treasurer.

Directors assuming office tonight will be Ralph Brogdon, Thomas P. Foye, Clifton A. Hix, Thomas Fredericks, Timothy O'Connor, and Cyril A. Walton.

PRINCIPAL speaker will be David Snodgrass, celebrated dean of the Hastings College of Law, University of California. Snodgrass has been dean of the college since 1942 and is credited with originating the idea of inviting retired members of other faculties to join the Hastings teaching roster. As a result, Hastings, the oldest law school outside of the East, has a faculty comprised of former deans of such law schools as Harvard and of members of equally prominent faculties.

from 1953. Judge William E. MacFaden, Collamer A. Bridge, Walter N. Anderson, Albert Isen, William B. Keene, Mark Wood, Boris S. Woolley, William Hollingsworth, Lowell L. Dryden, and Rafter.

Membership of the association is drawn from attorneys in the South Bay cities of Gardena, Torrance, and the Palms Verdes Peninsula.

Pay Increase Gets Senator's Support

U. S. Senator Thomas H. Kuchel of California said he will support pay increases for members of the Armed Forces.

"I believe most energetically that a pay raise for men and women in the military service is long overdue," Kuchel stated.

"Congress has a duty to act in this field and I shall play my part in making it discharge that duty."
