The Marines were among 18,000 men called from the West Coast for the United States quarantine operations in the Caribbean during November. They returned to Camp Pendleton early in December and departed, Dec. 27, for Okinawa. New Year's Day was spent in Hawaii.

Colton Heads Harbor Real Estate Course

A class in real estate practices will be offered in the evening division during the spring semester at Harbor College, it was announced by Carmen Marinella, chairman of the business division.
The course, which meets from 6:30 to 9:30 on Wednesday evenings starting the week of Feb. 4, will be a practical workshop in the problems of establishing and conducting a real estate business.
Major topics to be studied will be: establishing the office; securing listings and prospects; showing properties and closing sales; financing, appraising, and property management; rentals, leases, and the California Real Estate Act. Guest speakers and visits to properties will be included.
THE INSTRUCTOR of the spring course, Victor M. Colton, holds a bachelor's degree from the University of California at Santa Barbara, and has studied at the University of California at Los Angeles, and at the University of Southern California.
He is a licensed general contractor as well as a licensed real estate broker, and owner of a realty company, located in the city of Palos Verdes Estates, specializing in the sale of residential property. He is a member of the California Real Estate Assn., the National Assn. of Real Estate Boards, and the National Institute of Farm Brokers.
Deadline for filing application for the spring semester is tomorrow.
