

Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 9) I don't think it's fair for him to take out his frustrations on me. I've had one unsuccessful marriage and I don't want another one. He is 45; I am 38. He says things will be better after we are married. His family feels I would be a dirty dog to break up with him now that he is not well. My conscience is bothering me and I don't know what to do. I need your guidance.—AFRAID.

Dear Afraid: An engagement is not a marriage. It is a period during which both parties decide whether or not they want to spend the rest of their lives together. You are not getting along well with this man and marriage to him would probably be a catastrophe.

Confidential to Needing Privacy: A 14-year-old girl should not have to put up with such tomfoolery. Tell your mother to bolt your door—and the sooner the better.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How to Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Devotions Feature Guild Goals

Wesleyan Service Guild held its regular monthly dinner meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 15, at the First Methodist Church. One of the members, Mrs. Ethel Hutchison, was absent since she was attending the commissioning of her daughter, Mary Lou, as Deaconess in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Program, "Dimensions of Prayer" was given by Mrs. Marian Gunter. Since January was being observed as "Wesleyan Service Guild" month, the devotions, given by Mrs. Odell Lewis, Mrs. Catherine Baker, Mrs. Celecia Shelby, and Miss Olive Marshall, were centered around the purposes and goals of the Guild. Each member is wearing a ribbon with the Guild emblem in observance of Guild month.

This organization is for women who are employed during the day and are unable to be active members of other circles in the church. Those desiring to join the Wesleyan Service Guild are requested to contact Misses Olive or Molly Marshall, 20544 Avis Ave., Torrance. The meeting closed with the guild benediction.

Harbor Medical Ass'ts To Sponsor Two Classes

Two classes will be sponsored by the Medical Assistants at Gardena Adult School. Registration is now open for the Medical Office Procedure Class spring semester, which will begin Tuesday, Feb. 5, 7 to 9:30 p.m. The instructor will be Mrs. Jean Davis, immediate past president of HMAA, past president of Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club and St. Cecilia's Guild of St. Andrews. She has worked with the medical profession for many years and is well qualified to teach this course. Special emphasis will be given to the insurance approach, as it relates to the medical office.

The class in Medical Terminology will continue on Wednesday night, Dr. Durkin is the instructor and has had a great deal of success with the class for the past several years. It meets a definite need for the medical secretary and assistant, by teaching medical terms, including root words, prefixes and suffixes. An interesting and informative symposium will be sponsored by the HMAA at the Pen & Quill Restaurant in Manhattan Beach, Sunday, Feb. 17, from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sixteen members of the Medical Office Procedure class at Gardena Adult School have made reservations for this symposium. The theme of this meeting is "Our World of Medicine—Today and Tomorrow." Dr. Charlotte Buhler will speak on "Old Age as a Phase of Human Life." Fred Benson, attorney-at-law, will speak on the controversial topic "The McNaughton Rule in California." A film "Life Story" will be narrated by Bartlett Saunders, M.D. A fourth speaker has not been announced. Anyone interested in making a reservation may call Virginia Frenger, chairman.
