Hospital Adds Jones To Board

Bruce Jones, manager of the Torrance branch of Bank of America, has been elected to the board of directors of Riviera Community Hospital, Gene Voorhees, president of the board, announced Monday.

Born in Abercynon, South Wales, Jones came to the Los Angeles area in 1926. He is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking, Pacific Coast Banking School; School of Banking, University of Washington; and is an instructor at the American Institute of Banking.

Jones served in the European Theater of Operations with the United States Army during World War II for 3½ years as Master Sergeant in the Medical Department.

ACTIVE IN CIVIC work, he is part director and treasurer of El Segundo Rotary Club, past vice president and director of El Segundo Chamber of Commerce, past branch manager of the El Segundo Red Cross Chapter, and past director of the Torrance Rotary Club. He is currently area representative for Orthopedic Hospital and director of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Jones lives with his wife, Bernice, and their two children, Marsha and Robert, in Manhattan Beach.

Riviera Community Hospital is a 96-bed, non-profit, general voluntary community hospital.
