Loan Firm Announces Promotion

Walter Welch has been named assistant vice president and loan manager for Marina Federal Savings and Loan Assn., according to an announcement by Russell C. Chase, president and chairman of the board.

In his new capacity Welch will supervise home loan activity for all four Marina Federal offices, including the one in Torrance at 22200 Hawthorne Blvd. Welch has been with Marina Federal for two years having previously worked as a cost analyst.

HE IS A member of the Pearl Harbor Survivors and was a Marine Sergeant on board the USS San Francisco, a heavy cruiser, at the time of the attack on the naval base. Welch survived heavy action in several South Pacific engagements, including Guadalcanal and Okinawa. He also served for two years in Korea.

Welch and his wife, who have no children of their own, are sponsoring a Canadian youth. The young man, who came to the Torrance area from Quebec two years ago, spoke only French upon his arrival at the Welch home in Torrance. Mrs. Welch, who was born in Canada, acted as interpreter.

The Welchses have since paid for his schooling, where he has learned to speak English, and have helped him to achieve an L.A. County certification as a welder.

Army Pvt. Wayne D. Nielsen, son of Mrs. Axel R. Nielsen, 5016 Lillian St., recently completed eight weeks of advanced individual artillery training as a cannoner at The Artillery and Missile Center, Ft. Sill, Okla.

The 17-year-old soldier entered the Army in August 1962 and completed basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif.

Before entering the Army, he was employed by C. Stevens Co., Venice.

Rain Fails To Dampen Realty Hop

Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors members braved torrents of rain to attend the annual Valentines party at the Board Hall Saturday night. The Board's Women's Division featured Mel Coates Orchestra, a floor show, dance contests, and prizes to provide a variety of entertainment.

Bill Penn and Robin Thomas, dance instructors from the Bette Thomas Studios, demonstrated exhibition numbers of the Cha Cha, Bossanova, swing, and Tango. First place waltz contest honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Olin. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brugger won second place and Realtor Fred Hansen and Mary Masters won third place. Board President Ken Peters and his wife Jean were present.

Doris Lippard, president of the Women's Division conducted a drawing for prizes contributed by friends of the Board. Realtor Rose Craig presided at the ticket table for the entire evening. Women Division members Beulah

New Manager Named for Local Agency

Douglas M. Tinsler, Rolling Hills Estates, was appointed manager of the South Bay district agency of the Prudential Insurance Co., it was reported this week. The agency is located at 1401 Cravens Ave., in Torrance.

Tinsler succeeds retiring manager Clyde W. Emery of 1629 E. 65th St., Long Beach. Emery joined the Prudential as an agent in 1938 and became manager of the South Bay district in 1960.

Tinsler, a native of San Diego, joined the company in 1940, and after a series of moves and promotions, became manager of the Raleigh, N.C., district agency in 1954, until his current appointment.

Schmidt, Edna Binder, Norine Burgess, Marie Hall, and Georgia Carr served on the party committee.

Realtor Fred Hansen supervised the refreshment counter assisted by Andy Vesco, Jack McCullough, Larry Poeske, and Charles Colsch.
