Church Slates Sermon Series

The Rev. Earl B. Leonard, pastor of the Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd., announces a new series of sermons on "Basic Christian Fundamentals" beginning Sunday in the 11 a.m. service.

These messages are designed especially for new Christians. There will be spiritual food for all.

The subject for the 7 p.m. service is, "Expectant Hearts." God never gives a desire to the human heart that He cannot satisfy. If you are looking to Him, expecting from Him, you will be satisfied, the pastor stated.

The Wednesday morning Bible Class has started again and will be held at 10 a.m. There will be a pre-school nursery at this hour.

Eight From Local Church At Sessions

Pastor Manson Metcalf and seven delegates from Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia, are preparing today for participation this weekend in the 45th Biennial Business Session of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists at Los Angeles.

The local church delegate contingent will travel Sunday to White Memorial Adventist Church, 420 N. Bailey St., Los Angeles, for the church business session at which the delegates will hear reports of Southland church activity in the past two years, vote for officers for the church's Southern California Conference for the next two years, and help formulate plans for the coming biennial period.

"THIS MEETING is one of the most important processes of the Seventh-day Adventist Church," said Pastor Metcalf in commenting on the business session. "Our church's delegates have been selected by the whole church, and they in turn will vote for or against the officers and plans that come to the floor of the business session."

Pastor Metcalf said hundreds of delegates from 84 Seventh-day Adventist churches in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and Ventura counties will vote on all matters of church business at the Sunday convention and that nearly one thousand delegates will be present.

The following members of the Torrance Adventist Church have been named as delegates to the church business session: John Dillon, Mrs. Bernice Moshos, Al Gordon, Chy Frederick, Mrs. Emma Stevich, Mrs. Juanita Brennan, and Keith Ray.

Church Holds 'Operation Doorbell'

"Operation Doorbell," a visitation program consisting of men from the Baptist churches of the Harbor Assn. calling on people who are interested in attending the Baptist churches in the Harbor area, was initiated last Sunday afternoon. Volunteers had a visitation training session with Dr. Gene Crow and Dr. John Lavender at the First Baptist Church.

"Operation Doorbell" was continued Monday and Tuesday evenings. A recognition service will be held in the 25 churches in the Harbor area.

The Harbor area extends from Redondo Beach to Los Alamitos, and from San Pedro to Downey.

Dr. Lavender formerly was national evangelist for the American Baptist Convention, and is recognized as one of the top authorities on visitation. He is pastor of the First Baptist Church of Bakersfield.

Ed Enrietta, chairman of evangelism for the Harbor Assn., was in charge of the program.

24 Student Nurses Pinned In Harbor College Rites

Maltese Cross pins—insignia of a graduate vocational nurse—were presented 24 students in the Los Angeles Harbor College and Harbor General Hospital Vocational Nursing Classes last week in the First Presbyterian Church in San Pedro.

President Wendell C. Black and Miss Roberta Lindberg, director of nursing at Harbor College, conducted the certification and pin ceremony.

The Nurses' Pledge and student response by Virginia Noyes and Ernestine Nuchols followed.

Elaine de Borra, RN, chief of nursing service at Long Beach Veterans Hospital, was principal speaker. Letha Cole conducted the pledge of allegiance and Chaplain John Penner of Harbor General Hospital gave the invocation and benediction. A reception in the Church social hall was sponsored by Upsilon Nu Sigma, honor society of vocational nurses.

Graduating were Patricia Lynne Morgan, Helen C. Poin-dexter, Cathryn Lee Rendon, Wilmington; Evern Arlene Casey, Francisca V. Penarada, San Pedro; Anna K. Carr.

Letha May Cole, Mary C. Dominguez, Florence Fay Edwards, Sue S. Herman, Barbara Ann Jordan, Eva Lorraine Kimpel, Amalia Mora, and Dorothy May Upton, Torrance.

Olive L. Kelly, Ernestine Nuchols, Redondo Beach. Ruby C. Flower, Vicki Lorraine Vincent, Lomita. Pauline Hargrove, Virginia Noyes, Gardena; Diana E. Pace, Harbor City; Sharon Grimm, Manhattan Beach; Corriella Jane Morrow, Long Beach; Anna Kathryn Norman, Los Angeles.

"Soul" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon this Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 1750 Manuel Ave.

Bible readings will include this passage from Psalms (42:1): "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God."

Other passages will emphasize the Christian Science teaching that man's real soul is not something in the material body, but the one infinite Soul, or God.

Also included will be this sentence from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 60): "Soul has infinite resources with which to bless mankind, and happiness would be more readily attained and would be more secure in our keeping, if sought in Soul."

When the heart is afire, some sparks will fly out of the mouth. — Thomas Fuller.
