And not every divorcee is living in a shabby apartment. Sometimes it's the alimony-busted husband who winds up in a rented room with naked light bulbs.

One thing is certain, however—the widow didn't have a choice.

Dear Ann Landers: My problem is an older man, I'm 16 and Brad is 29. His parents think I'm 20 and my parents think he is 22. He's madly in love with me, but I'm not in love with him. The trouble is I don't have the heart to break up with him. Brad knows how I feel but he doesn't care. He says love will come later. He has spent over $200 on me in the last two months, and his parents have bought me gifts, too. They think I'm the smartest and loveliest girl he has ever gone with. He wants to marry me next year when I graduate from high school.

Please don't think Brad is going with me for sex. I am very moral. Tell me what to do.—MISS NEWARK

Dear Miss Newark: People often ask me how I spot phony letters. Well, here is how I spotted yours.

No parent can possibly think a 20-year-old who is still in high school is "the smartest girl he ever went with." Now why don't you go do your homework?

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

First baby about to make his (or her) debut? When you pack for that joyous trip to the hospital, apart from the basic necessities for you and baby, here are a few minor necessities that will stand you in good stead:

- A simple cosmetic kit, to indulge in a bit of luxury primping that may be by-passed when you get home.
- Note paper and a ball point pen, to dash off those "thank-you" notes you may not have time for later.
- Some small change for papers, magazines, stamps, etc.

Bottle-feeding facts. If you and your doctor have decided that bottle-feeding is for your baby, ask him about Modilac—the Gerber Baby Formula. It's a special milk formula, that provides the nutrients your baby will need. Modilac really looks like milk and tastes like milk because it's flash-sterilized in 6 seconds to protect color and flavor, as well as precious protein and vitamin values.

For your convenience, Modilac is a complete formula. No syrup or sugar to measure or mix. No vitamin supplement needed. All you have to do is combine it with the amount of boiled water your doctor specifies.

Organization plan. Home at last, with a new love in your heart and no time on your hands. If you do a bit of pre-planning and organize your days in terms of baby's needs first and chores second, you'll fare beautifully. Household duties can usually wait—a little heart that needs you. ...

Solid start. Almost before you know it, your baby will be ready for cereal. Good starting point for this important step: Gerber Cereal Sixes. This handy, 6-in-1 package contains small-size boxes for pint-size appetites. Rice Cereal, Mixed Cereal, High Protein Cereal and 2 Oatmeal make up this nice-to-eat sextette. Flavors are delicate, the way they should be for babies, the texture dreamy-smooth. And, they're enriched with iron, calcium, and B-vitamins. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.
