Warrior Netmen Go After Third Conference Win

With an even 2-2 record, El Camino College tennis players will journey to Valley College tomorrow for their fifth Metropolitan Conference match of the season. Face-off time will be 2:30 p.m.

The Warriors defeated the Valley netmen 9-1 in an earlier contest this season for one of their two wins in Metro action.

SUFFERING from the loss of their number two man Jake Guerrero with a back injury, the Warrior racquet swingers dropped a match to Santa Monica last week, 2-7.

In a tilt against Long Beach Saturday the Tribe bounced back and trounced the Viking netmen 9-0 without the aid of Guerrero.

LOSING GUERRERO throws a great deal of pressure on the other Warrior team members. "Guerrero will be sidelined for at least two weeks, maybe more. His loss will greatly affect the team. How great the effect will be depends upon how long he will be out," Paul Manahan, ECC tennis coach, said.

ALTHOUGH THEY played with a strong wind whipping across the courts, the Warrior racquetmen showed good form in their victory over Long Beach.

The wind played havoc with the volleys and had a discouraging effect on the racquetmen.

HIGHLIGHTING the windy event was the premier match between Jamie Collaco, El Camino's number one man, and Ron Morse, the Vikings' top netman. The match ran three sets with the last two sets being extended.

Collaco took the first set, 6-4, dropped the second set, 6-8, and came back to win the final, 8-6.

A GRADUATE of Morning-side High, Collaco emerged from a host of freshmen to seize the top spot on the Warrior net squad.

Guerrero, at the beginning of the season, was slated to handle the number one position for El Camino but was off form and had to give way to Collaco.

IT NOW APPEARS that Guerrero's back trouble may have contributed to his bad form.

Lettering in tennis last season at El Camino, Guerrero attended high school in Lennox and was first man on the varsity squad there for two years.

With two-thirds of the dual matches yet to be played, it is hard to tell what may happen in the Metro tennis race. Although, if the first third is any indication, the story will be the same as last year with Santa Monica and San Diego battling for first place.
