OPEN FOR BUSINESS... The new Shakey's Pizza Parlor at 5105 W. Torrance Blvd. has opened its doors to the area's pizza aficionados. The distinctive exterior of the building (above) leads to the gay interior where pizza serves as the appetizer while the honkytonk, ragtime, and jazz of banjos, pianos, and (what have you?) set the pattern for fun.

Service Project Marks Anniversary for Girls

In a true expression of their slogan, "Give Service," Camp Fire Girls of the Los Angeles Area Council are observing 53rd birthday with a service project for the Needlework Guild of America, according to Council president, Miss Vivian Osborn.
Each of the more than 100 Harbor District Camp Fire Girls who are participating will donate two new articles which she has made, together with a small cash contribution.

"Now I have to go home and convince my wife to cut down on her spending..."

THE GIRLS have been busy for several weeks sewing, knitting, and crocheting varied articles for which the Needlework Guild has received requests from Harbor Area organizations such as Homer Toberman Settlement House, Harbor General Hospital and Harlan Shoemaker, to name just a few.
The girls' service will be recognized by presentation to them of a Camp Fire Needlework Guild honor, as well as a service button provided by the Needlework Guild.
SPECIAL ingathering will be held at McMaster Park Saturday from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Arrangements for the ingathering have been made by Miss Deanna Manning, Harbor District program chairman for Camp Fire Girls, and Mrs. Claude Hill, director, Junior Girls Clubs, who will attend on behalf of the Needlework Guild, Peninsula Chapter.
