

Helen Sands Becomes Bride Of Donald Paup in Lutheran Rites

MRS. DONALD CLARK PAUP
... On Honeymoon

Miss Helen Jon Sands, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Raymond Sands, Sr., 3502 W. 227th St., was a lovely bride as she walked down the aisle of the First Lutheran Church last evening at 8 o'clock on the arm of her father, to exchange her marriage vows with Donald Clark Paup. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marvin K. Paup of Long Beach and the late Dr. Paup.

The Rev. William J. Roller officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony in the church where the couple are both members. As the 300 wedding guests assembled, Wayne Allen, organist, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Joseph Bjornadahl who sang "O Perfect Love," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

For her wedding, the bride wore a heavy bridal satin formal gown trimmed with Venetian lace, seed pearls and crystals, a William Cahill original. The long sleeves and neckline of the fitted torso were ornamented with appliqued flowers. The full satin skirt fell into a train. Her princess crown, of lace star points studded with seed pearls, secured her three-tiered silk illusion veil. The bride carried a white Bible and a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and lilies-of-the-valley.

Carrying out the white and green wedding colors, the attendants wore identical floor-length bell-shaped gowns of emerald green satin. Making up the bridal entourage were Mes. John R. Davis, Jerome S. Goodwin, Eugene Gregerson, Ross Stevens, Karl Keidser and Miss Sandra Lee Davis.

Flower girls were Charlene Ellen Sands and Kathleen Denise Goodwin, wearing green satin gowns featuring floor-length skirts in bustle effect. All of the attendants carried white full-bloom roses and green ivy.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'They Break Loose, Do Everything . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: I am a girl 15 and I'm writing in behalf of a friend of mine who is the same age. She said it would not be right for her to write to you because it might sound as if she were criticizing her parents. She did give me permission, however, to ask you some questions.

This girl is not permitted to wear make-up — not even lipstick—because it's against her religion. She can't date and is not allowed to talk to boys on the telephone. She can't dance because this is prohibited by her religion also.

But the saddest thing is that the poor kid is not allowed to wear a bathing suit. If she wants to go swimming she has to wear a dress. Of course she's ashamed and refuses to go swimming with us girls unless we go to an out of the way creek.

Can you do something to help her?—A FRIEND

Dear Friend: I have received countless letters from teenagers who are unhappy because their religion prohibits many things which they believe are harmless — such as dancing and movies. I cannot advise these teenagers to oppose their religious training.

If this girl's religion prohibits the wearing of a bathing suit, then I am not going to tell her to wear one. Unfortunately, some teenagers who feel that their religious restrictions are unjust break loose and do everything they shouldn't do the first moment they get out from under the eyes of their parents.

Dear Ann: Please print this letter for the husband who won't allow his wife to hire a

Junior Woman's Club Board Plans New Year

Mrs. Richard Oliver entertained members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club executive board in her Rolling Hills home Aug. 5. Presiding over the meeting was Mrs. William Faulds, president. Mrs. Jack Bohn, federation chairman, announced that the Area C conference will be held Sept. 7, at the Edgewater Marina Hotel, Long Beach, and encouraged everyone to attend. Mrs. Keith Pierson, ways and means gave a brief outline of the coming "Las Vegas" night which Juniors, Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Jayettes will hold jointly, Oct. 4, in the Retail Clerks Hall in Harbor City. Philanthropies discussed were YMCA Cerebral Palsy Pre-School, UCLA and the South West Assn. for Retarded Children, which will be among Junior projects for the year.

Attending were Mes. Robert Valencia, William Faulds, Richard Reynolds, Keith Pierson, Jack Bohn, James Miel, Richard Denno, Russell Sorenson, Donald French, Carl Messmer, Richard Oliver, Gordon Gmur.

AN EYE ON THE TREASURY... Mrs. Roy Ex, center, newly-elected treasurer of the Torrance American Little League Auxiliary, peeks into the treasure chest as Mrs. George Schindler, Jr., publicity chairman, right, and Mrs. Jack Wirick, president, look on. Other new officers for the coming season, elected this week, were Mrs. Harold Black, vice president; and Mrs. Kenneth Wolfe, secretary.
