

ACTOR'S ADVICE . . . Victoria Martin and Mark Lewis, performers in "Ozma of Oz," a sequel to "The Wizard of Oz" which will be presented Saturday by the Torrance Recreation Department's summer stock workshops, receive aid from dramatics director John Lankford. Twenty-five thespians from 8 to 14 years of age will participate in the play.

Young Actors Will Present Sequel to 'Oz'

Summer stock workshops sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department are now holding their last days of rehearsals of plays to be presented in public performances on Saturday at the Recreation Center building.

Under the direction of leader-in-charge John Lankford, the youth-drama groups will present "Ozma of Oz," a sequel to "The Wizard of Oz." A large cast of 25 students of 8 to 14 years of age will be featured. Principals will include Olivia Frangias, Victoria Martin, Deborah Wiggle, Diane Ford, Debby Heutmaker, Greg Heutmaker, Belinda Boulter, Marna Levin, Elsie Chylak, Therese Moe, Suzanne Edner, Arnold Edner, Don Burton, and Mary Pat Kassenick. A small donation will be asked for admission to the performance. Multiple sclerosis is a chronic, disabling, progressive disease of the central nervous system. Prevention and cure remain unknown.

Fuchsia Club Plans Active Sunday Meet

Dinner, a bazaar and entertainment will keep the Lomita Fuchsia Society busy on Sunday. The spaghetti dinner will be held at 25338 Penn Ave. in Lomita with a $1.25 donation asked. The bazaar will include plant, needlecraft, home-baked foods, and soft drink booths. Entertainment will be furnished by the Belles and Buoyes, a group of local square dancers.

Door prizes will be awarded every hour. Tomorrow, the Society will celebrate its 18th birthday with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. at the Penn Avenue address. Mrs. Alpha Stump will preside over an installation meeting following the dinner. Ken Terry will install C. O. Eipper, president; Ruth Mitchell, vice president; Verna Gluth, treasurer; Florence Carvill, secretary; Kermit Gluth, representative, and Frank Martinez, alternate representative. The accent will be on youth at this year's California State Fair, Aug. 28 through Sept. 9, in Sacramento. Thousands of youngsters will participate in scores of events designed with youth in mind. And the Fair will admit kids under 16 free.

Trio Named To Chamber Committee

The appointment of Mrs. Jean Clawson, Edward J. Gregory, and William Moss Jr., as co-chairmen of the monthly membership drive for the Torrance Chamber of Commerce has been announced by George W. Post, chamber president. The three new appointees will be responsible for planning and presenting programs to the membership as the regular breakfast meetings. They have already indicated they have several different and interesting programs scheduled. The first meeting of the 1963-64 year will be held Tuesday, Sept. 24, at the International House of Pancakes in Del Amo Center. Meetings are not held in July, August, and December.

Class of 1953 Plans Reunion

The tenth year reunion of the summer and winter classes of Narbonne High School, Class of 1953, will be held Sept. 14 at the school. Several members of the class have not been located, report committee chairmen.

Anyone who has not received an invitation, or knows of some one who has not received notification of the reunion, should contact Sue Epperheimer, Martinov at DA 6-4445, or Sandra Orr Ward at DA 6-8254.

Doctors Eleanor Thill of Torrance and Bernard N. Robinson of Gardena have been appointed area coordinators for the fourth annual photo contest sponsored by the California Optometric Assn. The two optometrists are members of the Los Angeles County Optometric Society. Robinson is also a Southern California civil defense coordinator for optometry with the COA.

The contest is free to all photographers, amateur or professional, in California. It solicits pictures, either black and white prints or color slides, interpreting the theme, "The Wonderful World of Vision."

Competition will extend through Dec. 15. Full information and entry forms may be obtained by contacting area coordinators or by writing to the COA Photo Contest, 926 Jay Building, Suite 810, Sacramento 14.
