

Clayton-Cale Nuptials Read in Lutheran Rites

Miss Janet Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clayton, 4903 Cadison St., became the bride of James Cale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cale, 25029 Eshelman Ave., Lomita, in a 2 o'clock ceremony at the Christ the King Lutheran Church on Saturday, Aug. 3.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length gown of turquoise chiffon over turquoise taffeta. With this she wore a matching veil secured by a turquoise chiffon rose. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis encircling yellow throated white orchids.

Mrs. Floyd Fletcher, in yellow chiffon over yellow taffeta, and carrying a cascade of yellow carnations and roses, served as the honor attendant.

Floyd Fletcher preformed the duties of best man. Ushers were Richard Clayton and Jack Cale.

Rev. Marvin Rygh officiated at the marriage ceremony and Mrs. Leonard Chessman sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Mary Hess was accompanist and played the wedding marches.

The 60 close friends and relatives greeted the newlyweds at a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Teresa Fletcher registered the guests. The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Sequoia and Carmel. Their new address is 921 Arlington Ave.

The bride is a 1957 graduate of Torrance High School. Her husband was a member of the 1955 Narbonne High graduating class.

Roberta Allen Plights Vows with John G. Clark

In a mid-afternoon ceremony at the WALTERIA Methodist Church on Sat., Aug. 3, Miss Roberta Louise Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Allen, 3338 Dalemead St., Torrance, exchanged her marriage promise with John Gilbert Clark. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Clark, 4832 Broken Bow Lane, Rolling Hills.

Mr. Allen escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a Chantilly lace gown over net organza. Seed pearls and sequins in the floral design of the scalloped lace accented the portrait neckline. The fitted bodice also had long tapered sleeves. The net organza of the full skirt was caught on both sides with white lace roses. The skirt fell over a three-tiered hooped taffeta skirt. Her fingertip veil was secured by a pearl tiara and she carried a white orchid encircled by white carnations and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Ella Margaret Lindley, wearing Kelly green satin, and a matching pill box hat, was the maid of honor. Her flowers were green carnations.

Bridesmaids were Sandee Anderson, Sandy Cunningham and Bobbie Moton. They were gowned in poudre blue satin and their bouquets were of matching carnations.

Jean J. Jones, Jr., stood as best man and ushers were Robert Rosson, Eric L. Hald-men, and Gregory K. Allen. The Rev. James Rush officiated at the marriage as Mrs. Robert Padelford played the nuptial music.

A poolside reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Sherrill Ropke was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at the Grand Canyon and are at home in Santa Ana.

The bride is a graduate of South High School and El Camino College where she was an art major.

Her husband, also a South High graduate, is serving with the United States Marine Corps.

Hostess at Club Benefit

Gazeley Son Psychiatric Club Prexy Baptised At To Address Secretaries St. Andrew's

Grant Richard Gazeley, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gazeley, 22006 Ocean Ave., was baptised at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church on Sunday, July 21. Rev. Hugh Percy officiated at the baptism, assisted by Mr. Alan Moore, lay leader.

Godparents for Grant Richard are Robert Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. James Perry.

Following the ceremony, the family met at the Gazeley home for dinner.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Wolf, maternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gazeley, paternal grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Fox, maternal great-grandparents; Mr. and Mrs. James Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gazeley, Mrs. Marshall Austin and Mr. Robert Wolf.

Others were John, Gale, Linda and Alan Austin; Steven and Marianne Perry; Denise and Judith Gazeley; and Kris Gazeley, sister of the new baby.

Kurt Kurdi, president of Psychiatric Club of America, will address the South Bay Chapter, National Secretaries Assn. at their regular dinner meeting this evening.

A noted authority on mental health, Kurdi is the author of "How Great is That Darkness," a novel based on his own personal experiences and observations.

Kurdi became interested in becoming a psychiatric nurse following the confinement of his terrified 15-year-old brother in a mental hospital.

In addition to writing and lecturing, Kurdi starred in the TV program, "The Untouchables." He played the lead in the show entitled, "I Was a Mental Patient for the FBI."

Donor of the John Kurdi Memorial Scholarship for outstanding psychology students, Kurdi believes that "the mentally healthy individual experiences fear, love, hate, jealousy, guilt, and worry, but he isn't overcome by them."

All secretaries in the South Bay area are invited to attend and may make reservations by calling Patt Bennett, program chairman.

The meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. at the Plush Horse Inn, 1700 South Pacific Coast Hwy., Redondo Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Podgurski and children, Vicky, Jay and Wanda, 3527 226th St., have returned from a two weeks trip. They visited Mrs. Podgurski's mother, Mrs. William H. Fritz in Butte, Mont., and her brother in Salt Lake City, Utah. A highlight of their vacation was their visit to Yellowstone National Park.

Golden Bear Council 17, Daughters of America, will meet this evening at 7:30 at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave., with Floella Whitacre in charge.

Stelma Norris, past councillor, will entertain her officers of the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Russell, 2726 Gramercy Ave., had as their weekend guests Mrs. Russell's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Simms of San Diego.

Bank Institute Women Present Fall Fashions

Annual kick-off luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the Women's Committee, Harbor District Chapter, American Institute of Banking, ushering in the Chapter's fall education program, will be held Saturday, Aug. 24, beginning at 12 noon, at the Edgewater Inn, Pacific Coast Highway at Second Street in Long Beach.

The theme of the event, "Fall Fantasies," will be carried out by Town & Country Fashions, Furs by Lockwood and Hats of Doris. Men's fashions will be shown from Miller's Store for Men in both Bellflower and Downey. It was announced by Hermine Burg, Women's Committee, chairman, that the coordinator of the show will be Doris Sterns with women's fashions being displayed by Condon models. Marvin Cloyd, an active member of the Long Beach Civic Light Opera Association, will be the commentator and will also provide the program. Vera Gentry is the organist for the show.

This is the first and one of the largest social events of the year, and its prime purpose is to introduce the American Institute of Banking educational program sponsored by Harbor District Chapter in this area for the coming year.

Out-of-town guests from other chapters will be in attendance, and all bankers and their friends are cordially invited. For reservations, see the Women's Committee representative at any bank.
