BANDAGES BY THE YARD . . . Sick and injured in faraway missions as well as in the missions of Alaska and Indian communities in this country will benefit from the work done by a group of neighborhood girls every Wednesday afternoon during the summer months. The girls volunteered their time to assisting the CDA World Mission group. At work are from left, Susan McClain, 9, Jane Voeste, 10, Donna Lescoe, 10, Linda Lescoe, 9, Marlene Voeste, 11 and Debra Lescoe, 5.

Newlywed Robert Woerns Now At Home in Phoenix

In the presence of 150 friends and relatives gathered at the First Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 5, Miss Paula Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Johnson, 918 Acacia Ave., Torrance, exchanged her marriage promises with Robert E. Woern of Phoenix, Ariz. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Woern of Phoenix.

Mrs. Marcella Blackie, organist, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Charlotte Tiernan, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The Rev. Arthur Nagel, pastor, conducted the marriage service.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a gown of white chiffon over taffeta. Fashioned on simple lines, the creation had a Grecian neckline, short sleeves and a floor length gathered skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a flat headpiece of pearls and satin designed as petals. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and phalaenopsis.

Miss Diane Turner was maid of honor and Miss Sheryl Sells was bridesmaid. They were gowned in lavender chiffon and each carried a bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums. Duties of best man were performed by Richard L. Johnson. Ushers were Thomas E. Geltz and Norman Fern.

After the wedding, a reception was held in the church. Mrs. Richard L. Johnson and Mrs. David Bear were in charge of the bride's book.

Immediately following the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon at the Grand Canyon before going to Phoenix to make their home.

The new Mrs. Woern was a member of the June 1963 graduating class at Torrance High school.

Her husband, a student at Phoenix College, is employed by the Phoenix Fire Dept.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Walter West, 2034 Reynosa Dr., have returned from their vacation. They drove up the coast, stopping at Carmel, Monterey and San Francisco, driving north to Portland, Ore., where they visited friends. They then returned to Sacramento to attend a Fireman's conference and to visit friends there before coming home. Prior to their northern trip, the Wests had spent several days in Las Vegas.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'She Is Making Semi-Invalids . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: I would like to comment on the letter from the mother who complained that her children had the upper hand. Good grief! I'm only 14 and I know that any mother who lets her children step all over her is plain stupid.

My mother works all day and my brothers and I do plenty for ourselves. (My brothers are 15 and 16.) We get our own breakfast, take care of our own rooms and arrange for our own transportation.

Please don't think I'm underprivileged. We are a normal family with a nice home and plenty of advantages. The mother who wrote that letter should quit chaffering her kids around. She is making semi-invalids out of them. They'd have more respect for her if she stopped being a doormat.

If her kids are so helpless with her around I'd hate to think of what they will be without her. — CLAYTON, MISSOURI TEEN

Dear Clayton Teen: Your letter is an eloquent expression of what I've been trying to get across to parents for years. Thank you for saying it—and saying it so well.

I hope all mothers whose kids are running them ragged will see your letter and recognize themselves.

Dear Ann: My husband is having an affair with the woman next door. We have three children, 16, 15 and 10. She has two pre-school children.

This is not his first romance since we were married and it won't be his last. Divorce is out of the question so I have resigned myself to his monkeyshines. He will quit running around when he is worn out and that will be in about 10 years.

My husband has asked our 15-year-old daughter to baby sit (without pay) for this woman when he takes her to union meetings (they work together) and other supposedly business-connected affairs. Our daughter doesn't see why she should turn down paying customers and sit without pay for this woman. I'm afraid the girl may catch on there is something between them. Please tell me what to do. — Q.T.

Dear Q.T.: Tell your husband — right now — that he'd better never again ask his daughter to sit for the neighbor woman. Make it clear that if he does, you will step in and inform her that she is under no obligation to do so.

Aid World Missions

Girls Share Vacation With Less Fortunate

Sharing their vacation time with the less fortunate of the world, were neighborhood children who spent their Wednesday afternoon of each week tearing and rolling bandages to be sent to the missions in this country and abroad.

The girls also found time to prepare colored egg shells to be used by Confraternity Craft students in the making of mosaic pictures.

These young ladies volunteered their services to the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, World Mission group directed by Misses Kathryn and Felice Shaughnessy, co-chairmen.

Girls participating were Christine and Lorraine Camp, Claudia Carstenson, Laura Batty, Kathleen, Margaret and Theresa Dougan, Mary Herin, Claire Kristufek; Linda, Debbie and Donna Lescoe, Susan McClain.

Others were Mary Moffitt, Debra Williams, Jane and Marlene Voeste and Ann Marie Zupparde.

The Senior Mission group is now busily preparing Christmas boxes of clothing and blankets to be sent to Rev. Donahue at the Hooper Bay, Alaska Mission, and to Rev. Gaulbray, who works with the South Dakota Indian Mission.

Along with clothing and blankets will go doctor goods and medical supplies to Dr. Herbert Sorenson, formerly of Torrance, who is now serving as a Catholic mission doctor in Likuni Mission, Nysaland, Southern Rhodesia, Africa.

B'nai B'rith Membership Meet Oct. 21

Membership will be the theme of the meeting of the Hollypark B'nai B'rith at 8:15 Monday evening at the Great Western Savings and Loan, Purche and Rosecrans in Gardena. Every member is urged to bring a guest to this meeting. Mrs. Gerald Holzberg has arranged a program "B'nai B'rith and the Dragon." In the cast are Mmes. Hope Silverman, Frank Scherr, Max Ringel, Hank Carrier, Irving Kosky, Paul Billitzer and Louis Finger. Mac Cline will furnish the accordion accompaniment.

Mrs. Herbert Schwartz, 13007 Gramercy Pl., Gardena, may be contacted for further information or for transportation.

The Hollypark B'nai B'rith and 38 other chapters held a membership meeting at Beth Am Temple on La Cienega Blvd., Oct. 16.

Woman's Club Rummage Sale Next Friday

Torrance Woman's Club, Marina District 18, CFWC, will hold a rummage sale Friday, Oct. 25, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at its clubhouse, 1422 Engracia Ave. The public is invited to take advantage of the many bargains.

Circle Meets

Leah Circle of the First Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Blanche Riggio, 1730 Fern Ave., for a dessert luncheon and business meeting.

In the absence of Mrs. Russell Paxton, chairman, Mrs. Irene Hollins presided. The group planned their sewing articles for the bazaar to be held in early December.

Attending were Mmes. Hilda Booth, Charlotte Bufalo, Charlotte Dolan, Millie Millstead, Annette Bleich, Hattie Smith and Laura Greenwood.

ANGIE CERDA
... Sets Date (Nylander Studio)

Angie Cerda Will Marry Ronald Tome

Mr. and Mrs. Luis Cerda of Torrance announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Angie, to Ronald Lee Tome, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tome of Ogden, Utah.

The wedding will be solemnized on Nov. 30 at the St. Joseph Catholic Church in Hawthorne and will be followed by a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The future bride, a 1960 graduate of North High School, is employed as a secretary with the United States Air Force.

Her fiancé, a graduate of the University of Utah, is an engineer with Douglas Aircraft, Los Angeles.

Trip to Orient

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Lane prior to their departure for a month's trip to the Orient, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Billingsley entertained with a dinner party recently at the Dominguez Golf Club. Mr. Billingsley is well known in Torrance business circles and is the owner of the restaurant at the Dominguez Club.

At Club Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Newman, who were celebrating their 48th wedding anniversary, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rusk at the Columbia Steel Management Club's dinner dance held at the Hunters Hall in Rolling Hills.

Teacher's Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Reed, 1318 Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance, announce the marriage of their daughter, Shirley Ruth, to Elton Robert Russell. The wedding was solemnized in Yuma, Ariz., on Oct. 5.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Tina Richards of Torrance.

The new Mrs. Russell was a member of the 1956 Torrance High graduating class. She attended El Camino College for two years and received her degree from Long Beach State. She has been employed by the Torrance Unified School District for the past three years and is teaching the first grade at Parkway School.

Her husband, also a Torrance High graduate, is employed in the street maintenance department, City of Torrance.

The newlyweds are now at home at 1615 Date Ave.

FUN FIESTA BENEFIT . . . Las Colinas Garden Club members are busy making preparations for their "potluck dinner" benefit to be held poolside at the Irving Lessen home Monday evening. Mexican food will be served to husbands and honored guests, Mayor and Mrs. Albert Isen and Mr. and Mrs. John Haidenger. Proceeds will be used for the club's fund to beautify the area. Ready at chafing dish are Mmes. Irving Lessen, center, hostess, Wayne Allen, left, president, and Sidney Greene, right, vice president.

ANNUAL BOSSES' NIGHT . . . Torrance Business and Professional Women will have as their special guests their "bosses" for a dinner meeting and program Monday evening at the Jump'n Jack restaurant. Cocktails at 6:30 p.m. will be followed by dinner at 7:30. Guest speaker will be Dr. George Gleghorne, program director for the Ogo Satellite, Space Technology. Inviting their bosses are these two B&PW members, from left, Mrs. Veva Robinson, assistant cashier and escrow officer, Bank of America and Mrs. Flora Hameetman, registered representative California Investors. The bosses are left, Bruce Jones, manager of the Bank of America and Hanley Rogers, manager California Investors.
