

WIN COVETED AWARD . . . Two Torrance Eagle Scouts were given the highest Lutheran award in scouting last Sunday at Christ the King Lutheran Church. Receiving the Pro Deo Et Patria award (for God and Country) were Dennis Erickson and James Jones, both members of Explorer Troop 242X. Both young men have completed 150 hours of service to the church and completed a special project. Erickson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Erickson, 16310 Ardath Ave., and Jones is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, 2610 W. 181st St.

AFS Selects Finalists At Carson

Four Carson High students have been selected as candidates for the American Field Service "Americans Abroad" program. The students were selected on the basis of school records and personal interviews.

Applications were checked and interviews conducted by a committee which included chemistry teacher Mrs. Stribley, boys vice principal Donald Pelton, and two student judges, Georgianna Powers and Sandy Thorpe.

The four students were Linda Gilmore, Tom Cochran, Sandy Webb, and Dick Larsen. Their applications and records will be sent to New York where AFS headquarters will make the final selection.

THE PROGRAM, "Americans Abroad," is designed to increase friendship and understanding among the people of the world. American teenagers spend a summer or a school year with a family in another country, attending school and living as a member of the family.

"I don't have anything original to say," said Cochran when told the news. "It's just too great." Larsen echoed the same sentiments, citing the responsibility which falls on the students who are selected for the program. He described the
