Any clergyman can insist that no pictures be taken during the ceremony. Such a ruling would not save time or energy, but it would help to preserve the religious atmosphere.

Dear Ann Landers: The question which has been causing a great deal of trouble in our family is this: Do pictures of old boy friends belong in the family album?

My wife and I have been married two years. We were given an album by mother when we married. Mother had already pasted in some very lovely family pictures of grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins. We keep this book on the piano in the living room and a great many people see it.

Last night I happened to pick up the album and was shocked to see that my wife had added a half dozen pictures of her ex-boy friends. Some of them were signed with pretty mushy sentiments. I told her I didn't think this was proper. She said, "Why not? They were part of my life."

Is she right? Please settle this. — WANTING TO BE FAIR

Dear Wanting: A family album means FAMILY. Pictures of your wife's old flames are clearly out of place. If she wishes to keep the pictures elsewhere you should not object, but they don't belong in the family album.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Reception On Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Nichols, 3756 Bentley Ave., Los Angeles, were honored at a reception on their silver wedding anniversary given by their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Westerlund at their home, 4507 Toucan, Torrance.

Seventy guests attended the party from 3 until 6 p.m. on Sunday Oct. 20.

A buffet luncheon was served from a table effectively decorated in pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Nichols were married Oct. 22, 1938 in Jackson, Michigan, the home of Mrs. Nichols, who is the former Vernadine K. Price.

Special guests at the anniversary affair were Mrs. Nichols' mother, Mrs. Enos S. Price, their grandchildren, a sister-in-law Mrs. Mary Price and son, Dennis.

Attending the reception and congratulating the couple were friends from Los Angeles, Pasadena, Culver City, Venice, Encino and Torrance.

To Be Honored at USC Homecoming

Mrs. Walter Ted Gorrell, 23401 Anza Ave., Torrance, one of the 24 women who were named Helens of Troy when they attended the University of Southern California, will be honored at USC's annual homecoming Nov. 7.

They will ride in a parade on the campus at 11 a.m. with men who were chosen all-American football players for the Trojans.

The day, saluting the 75th anniversary of USC football, will conclude with the USC-Stanford game at 1:30 p.m. in the coliseum.

MR., MRS. EDWARD STOCKBURGER ... Cutting Anniversary Cake

E. Stockburgers Note Silver Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stockburger celebrated their silver wedding anniversary with an open house at their home, 3115 W. 179th St., on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 26, from 2 until 5 o'clock. A festive wedding theme was carried out in the decorations. A four-tiered anniversary cake centered the dining table from which punch and other refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stockburger were married on Oct. 28, 1938 in Streeter, North Dakota. They came to Torrance 12 years ago. The couple have one son, Gary.

Mr. Stockburger is employed by a local trucking firm. The family belongs to the Lutheran Church.

During the party hours approximately 80 guests called to congratulate the couple. Miss Diane Kozlow was in charge of the guest book.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Stockburger entertained 40 close friends and relatives at dinner.

Giant Sale Set Friday, Saturday

Members of the Nativity Altar Society are ready for their giant rummage sale tomorrow and Saturday at the parish annex, Engracia and Eldorado. Sale hours on Friday are from 10 to 8 p.m. and on Saturday, 10 to 6 p.m.

Mmes. Milton Boudreaux, Clarence Junior and Frank Dihope, co-chairmen of the rummage sale, announce that hundreds of real bargains, clean and in good condition, are all arranged in order, making "rummaging" unnecessary.

Children and adult clothing, along with miscellaneous household items will be on sale.

Assisting with sewing and preparing the garments are Margaret Barth, Mmes. Phil Clayton, Martin Elliot and Edward Heatherman.

On the pick-up service are Lean Cooper, Noel Morin, Mmes. John L. Reding and Milton Bruce.

Others helping are Mmes. Rudolph Ortega, Velma Rabel, Marion Wilson, Eva Thornton, Joe Useldinger, Ann Zboyan, Pauline Carstenson, L. H. Coleman, Stella Bruhanski and Margaret Hormell.

Contributions are still being accepted to the parish hall.

Guest Star At Alumnae Benefit Show

Adding to the "Magic in Motion" of the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae group's benefit luncheon today in the International Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel will be screen and television star Coleen Gray, on hand to assist with awarding the door prizes.

Proceeds of the fashion event, featuring Georgia Bullock's new collection, will go to the scholarship fund maintained by the nine Alpha Chi Omega alumnae groups in the Southland, administered by them through the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County. Established in 1947, the fund to date has provided more than $45,000 for 50 scholarships for special study in the field of neurological handicap, especially cerebral palsy. Scholarships have been granted at UCLA, USC, Los Angeles State College and Long Beach State College.

Co-chairmen of the benefit are Mmes. John S. Nash and Richard L. Oblinger.

Theater Benefit Set Nov. 10

Marianist League of Southern California will sponsor a performance of "Thieves' Carnival" at the Chapel Theater, 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy. Sunday evening, Nov. 10. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

This delightful four-act comedy was written by Jean Amouilh. Ed Long of Manhattan Beach, associate resident director of the playhouse, masterfully performs a double role, acting in the strenuous part of one of the pickpockets and directing the ambitious performance. A hilarious evening is promised to those attending and members and their friends are advised to make reservations early by calling Mrs. Frank Matthews or Mrs. Joseph Orsini. Tickets may also be purchased before the performance at the theater box office. Proceeds will be used for the education of Marianist priests and brothers.

Entertain Visitor Mrs. W. A. Dawson of Sacramento is spending two weeks here with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Vern McKay, 4713 Konya Dr. On Wednesday Mrs. McKay entertained at a bridge-luncheon for her mother. Guests were Mmes. Donald Fraleigh and Virgil Burtz.

Johnson-Youmans Vows Read in Church Service

Foursquare Church was the setting for the 8 o'clock wedding on Oct. 18 when Mrs. Thelma Johnson, 2356 Torrance Blvd. became the bride of Lester Youmans of Arcadia.

Officiating at the candle-light ceremony were Rev. J. P. Lowen and Rev. William Clayton.

Ruth White, organist, played the nuptial music and accompanied Noni Johnson and Diana Schimmick who sang "Indian Love Call" and "Hawaiian Wedding Song." Miss Johnson sang "One Hand, One Heart" and the Wedding Prayer.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her son-in-law, Richard Floyd. She wore an aqua street length crepe sheath with three quarter sleeves and bateau neckline. Her short veil was attached to an aqua rosepetal headpiece.

Her bouquet was of chrysanthemums tied with aqua ribbons.

The bride's daughter, Mrs. Charlene Floyd, wearing aqua chiffon and carrying aqua carnations, was the matron of honor.

Leon Youmans stood as his father's best man.

Candles were lighted by Dean Whitley and Ken Smuland. Ushers were Bob Walker and Doug Friends.

A reception for 275 guests was held in the church hall where Mrs. Wanona Elinor registered the guests.

The newlyweds are making their home in Torrance following a honeymoon. Mrs. Youmans is manager of the Mode O'Day Dress Shop here.

Special guests at the wedding were Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Pederson of Santa Ana and the Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Becker of Los Angeles.

Party Hosts

Recent dinner celebrants at Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula included Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Clark of Torrance, who noted his birthday anniversary by entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crofford of Hollywood Riviera and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Davis of Torrance.
