Varela-Knott' Nuptials Read in Chapel Service

Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend was the setting on Friday evening, Nov. 1, for the 7:30 evening wedding uniting Miss Victoria Varela, 1410 W. 227th St., Torrance, and William Knott, 2740 Arlington Ave., Torrance. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Thelma McBride of Long Beach and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knott, Granite Falls, Minn.

Mr. Alfred Vermiglio escorted his niece to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta. A scalloped embroidered neckline and long pointed sleeves were features of the fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. A white rose headpiece held the illusion veil and the bride carried red roses and gladioli.

Miss Sarah Guin was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Carolyn Brown and Gayle Sheldon. Their gowns were of red chiffon and their bouquets were of red and white roses and carnations.

Candles were lighted by Arthur Maehl and Mrs. Myron Sundin was in charge of the bride's book.

Myron Sundin stood as best man and ushers were Tom Elkins and Paul Gitmad.

Rev. Robert Young officiated at the marriage after which a reception was held at the Oddfellows hall. Hostesses were Mmes. Alfred Vermiglio, Celesta Foster and Rebecca Leeds.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Lake Gregory. Their new address is 1508 Madrid, Torrance.

The bride is a graduate of San Pedro High School and Gaylord School of Nursing. Her husband, a Granite Falls, Minn., High School graduate, is now attending Long Beach State College.

Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 25) wild when they saw me. I got orders to get a short haircut at once. My hair is blonde on the ends but close to the scalp it's dark brown and I look like a field animal.

My parents are so mad they hardly speak to me. My mother won't let me go to the beauty shop and get my hair tinted back to my natural colors. She says I have to sweat it out.

How can I get back on friendly terms with my folks? Please suggest something.—OLD BALDY

Dear Baldy: Be patient. In a few weeks you'll be looking human again. In the meantime keep ribbons, bows and other ornaments off your head. Make no reference to your hair and your folks will thaw out eventually.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Ten-Agers and Sex" ($2.95) is now available at your book store.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Text Book Published By Teacher

"Geometry: Plane, Solid, Coordinate" is the title of a new high school text recently published by a local teacher. Miss Jane Zartman, girls' vice principal at Garfield High School, Los Angeles, wrote the book in collaboration with Frank M. Morgan, noted teacher and lecturer in the mathematics field.

The text has been adopted for use in the high schools of Texas this year. Miss Zartman conducted workshop meetings in eight cities of Texas during the past summer to discuss with teachers of many school districts the subject of modern mathematics and use of new textbooks.

In this new text the authors have combined the best features of modern and traditional geometry. It offers a program that is flexible and is easy to teach.

Miss Zartman is an active member of Gamma Gamma Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an organization of outstanding women in the field of education. This chapter is composed of women educators of the Harbor area.
