Hollywood Reporter

By Mike Connolly

Dr. Mr. Connolly: There used to be a beautiful Hollywood star named Mary Castle who could double for Rita Hayworth. What ever happened to her? — Bob Purvin, Saugus, Mass.

Dear Bob: She looked so much like Rita that it wrecked her career. Mary is now the hostess at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel dining room.

Mr. Connolly, Sir: I'm a movie fan but this isn't a movie question. How do I remove ink stains from the tablecloth? — Gertrude Kettlich, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Dear Gertrude: With scissors.

Dear Mike: Has Ginger Rogers quit pictures? She was always my favorite. — John J. Wherity, Wayzata, Minn.

Dear John: Ginger and her husband, Bill Marshall, will produce films in the West Indies.

Dear Sir: I keep reading about "The Fanny Brice Story" for both Broadway and Hollywood. What's ever happened to it? — Frank Sewek, Orlando, Fla.

Dear Frank: They've been having a tough time finding the right girl for this great part. Ever since Mrs. Ray Stark, Fanny's daughter, saw Barbra Streisand on Broadway in "I Can Get It for You Wholesale," she's been insisting on Barbra for it. Maybe you'll agree when you see Barbra on the Dinah Shore show May 12th.

Dear Mike: My girl friend, Sandra, says Tab Hunter is 26. How old is he? — Kay Schiff, Newark, Calif.

Dear Kay: 33.

Dear Mike: Who is the handsomest star in Hollywood? — Jane Falk, Atlantic City, N.J.

Dear Jane: Lassie.

Dear Mike: I hope in calling Peter O'Toole "a crazy Irishman," in one of your recent columns, you were using the term affectionately. Some people may have gotten the wrong idea. He really is so talented it's almost frightening. I think he must be a true genius — just considering the fact that he only had two years of formal schooling! — Barbie Clay, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Barbie: So how come

Greg Peck beat out this crazy Irishman (as one Irishman to another, Barbie—know what I mean?) to the Oscar?

Dear Sir: We were reading about "The Great Parade." Is its director, King Vidor, still alive? — Jerry Church, Burlingame, Calif.

Dear Jerry: Very much so. But it was "The Big Parade."

Dear Mr. Connolly: We have a son in high school (he's a senior) who is better looking than Robert Wagner and Warren Beatty combined. What should he do? — Mrs. Dorothea Ryan, Tulsa, Okla.

Dear Mrs. Ryan: You should see that he gets a nice, steady job and forgets about being a movie star. Competition is fierce and very few ever make it. If he has some dramatic ability and lots of ambition it's another story.

Dear Sir: Do winners of the Academy Award ever get a cash award too? — Donna Lee Revell, Birmingham, Ala.

Dear Donna Lee: No. The award is supposed to bring the cash indirectly — as a career stimulus.

Dear Mike: June Haver was my favorite during the war. Does she ever work in pictures any more? — Jimmy Prokop, Yonkers, N.Y.

Dear Jimmy: June is happily married to Fred MacMurray and has no desire to be anything but a housewife.

Two Companies Given Contracts

Two Torrance firms have been awarded contracts by the U. S. Naval Ordnance Test Station for the greater Los Angeles area.

A $7,432 contract for hardware went to CPR International Corp. and a $1,150 contract to the BMW Manufacturing Co. for a Warhead Monorail Sled.
