South High Co-ed Picked For European Study Tour

Gina Corazza, a junior at South High School, has been selected by the National Automobile Dealers Assn. as a student representative of the western states in an exchange program with automobile dealers in Europe.

Gina will leave June 17 for New York where she will join 25 other students from all over the United States.

At New York's LaGuardia Airport she will board a jet for Denmark. During her stay there Gina will visit the home town of Hans Christian Anderson.

Her next stop will be Germany where she will see the Volkswagen factory and the Berlin Wall. A visit to Munich is also scheduled. From there Gina will go to Milan, then to Rome.

Monday will find her on the French Riviera. In a few days she will light up Paris with her brilliant sunburn. After leaving France, Gina will go to Switzerland to visit Geneva and see the Matterhorn.

Her last journey before coming home will take her to England.

Rev. Hughes Sets Topics

"Children of God's Kingdom" will be the topic of the Rev. Charles Hughes' message at the Western Avenue Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Mr. Hughes will speak on "The Day the Sun Stood Still" Sunday evening.
