Hollywood Reporter

By Mike Connolly

Mike's Thursday Mailbag—
Dear Mike: Do you carry insurance to cover yourself when stars like Shirley MacLaine start slugging you?—Sid Herman, Helena, Mont.

hibits at those posh art galleries.—Ernie Roboke, Glenview, Ill.

Dear Sid: No, but I have started keeping a baseball bat in my desk.

Dear Ernie: Some of the Hollywoodians considered tops in art circles are Claudette Colbert, Claire Trevor, Dinah Shore, Van Johnson, Anthony Quinn, Richard Whorf, Orry Kelly, Tony Curtis and Henny Backus (Jim's wife, and a fine sculptress). The galleries (such as Raymond Burr's) give them breaks if they are good, not just because they're names. Ray's latest exhibit, and a very successful one, featured paintings by Whorf.

Mr. Connolly: Three cheers for Shirley MacLaine. Give me a girl with a punch any day. And God bless her for not making "Wives and Lovers." As for throwing 400 people at Paramount out of work by refusing that part, it's better than throwing a whole country in the mud. Remember, "Rome fell from within." I wish there were more women like Shirley. —A Certain Woman, Brockton, Mass.

Dear Mike: Liz Taylor wants to get going on the divorce proceedings and Eddie Fisher keeps saying yes, yes, yes—but Eddie is still playing the waiting game. Isn't that the current status of the whole mishmash? — Marty Saunders, Fairmont, W. Va.

Dear Woman: Shirley will need those blessings after the public sees her as the prostitute in "Irma La Douce."

Dear Marty: Not quite. Eddie will set up residence in Nevada to get the divorce, having already agreed to a settlement by which he will receive half of Liz's percentage of the profits on "Cleopatra."

Dear Mr. Connolly: I read about The Slugging. I have a suggestion for you, Mike. Perhaps you should take up a less dangerous occupation — like lion taming for instance. But then I would miss your column so maybe you'd better not. By the way, how does it feel to have someone walk into your office and slug you like that? —Mrs. Violet Peterson, Portland, Ore.

Dear Mike: I remember when Irene Ryan, now a big star in "The Beverly Hillbillies," played with Tim Ryan in an act at the old Empress Theater in Omaha. Irene was then Irene Noblette. Do you remember this? — Evelyn Warrick, South Pasadena, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Peterson: It hurts. Thanks for your letter, and thanks to the thousands of others who wrote. Wish I could answer all of them, the pro-Shirleys as well as the cons. But no more — please, dear readers and writers! It's a closed book.

Dear Evelyn: No, but I remember Butterbeans and Susie, Smith and Dale and the Avon Comedy Four, and Burns and Allen.

Thanks again, Mike I am always grateful for your friendship.—Dolores Hart, Bethlehem, Conn.

Sir: And what kind of an image does Shirley MacLaine think she has other than "Creep," with that disgusting hairdo?—Mrs. F. X. Aussen, Alameda, Calif.

Dear Dolores: I hope you find all the happiness and fulfillment in your new pursuit that Hollywood couldn't offer you.

Dear Mrs. Aussen: Now look here, I thought we were going to forget all that?

Dear Mike: I often hear of Hollywood stars who are considered fine artists. Can you tell me their names and how they manage to wrangle the break of having their own ex-

Dear Mike: Could you please tell me how many wives John Wayne has had, how many children and grandchildren does he have, how old is he and who is his present wife—Patricia Rohman Peoria, Ill.
