Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 9) to teach them, worrying now won't help. Dear Ann Landers: Several letters have appeared in your column from mothers who received used clothes for their children. Some were delighted — others insulted. I hope you will find space to print just one more.

I grew up during the depression. Every evening gown I ever owned went to at least four proms. My maternally dresses went the rounds, too. Nothing was wasted.

When we moved to another city I offered some clothing to a woman who hasn't spoken to me since. So then my husband decided to discard an expensive sport jacket I gingerly offered it to a mother who could well afford to buy her son a new one. She gave me in return some plaid clothes for my younger children. It kills me to send kids out in brand new clothes to play in the mud. I was delighted to have the hand-me-downs.

This woman and I are now good friends. The secret is to know which people will be offended and which ones will be pleased. And the only way to find out is to ask.—DID IT

Dear Did It: Thanks for the nice, homey letter. There are more people like you than the other kind. And I'm glad!

Confidential to ANTI ASH FLICKER: The moment she lights up hand her a nice big ash tray. She'll get the point.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help for the Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (C) 1962, Field Enterprises, Inc.
