Alfonso L. Corpus, electrician's mate fireman apprentice, son of Mrs. Dolores L. Corpus of 18422 Faysmith, and Ernest A. Luning, seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Luning of 2614 W. 180th St., are serving aboard the destroyer USS McDermut, a First Fleet unit which recently visited Portland, Ore., during the annual Portland Rose Festival.

In addition to the McDermut, 11 other Pacific ships visited Portland to join in the celebration.

Marine Pvt. 1-C Charles M. Saenz, son of Mrs. Louella Rios of 1730 Greenwood Ave., is serving with the Third Marine Aircraft Wing at the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Ana, Calif.

Helicopters, transports and jets of the Third Wing provide support for infantrymen of the First Marine Division at nearby Camp Pendleton.

Army Sgt./1c Laurence E. Rumford Jr., whose wife, Thelma, lives at 520 E. Carson, participated in the all-Army Rifle and Pistol Matches held at Ft. Benning, Ga., June 5-15.

Sgt. Rumford and 900 other Army shooters representing commands around the world competed in the 43 individual and team events fired during the annual event.

Winners at the meet now advance to the National Rifle and Pistol Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, in August.

The sergeant entered the Army in 1948. Rumford's father lives at 520 E. Carson.

Arthur L. Davis, son of Mrs. Juanita P. Berry of 3641 W. 180th Pl., recently completed basic training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, in graduation ceremonies during the weekly Recruit Brigade Review in which some 3,000 men participated.

The nine-week recruit training program includes naval orientation and history, customs and etiquette, basic military law, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship and basic shipboard routine, sentry duty, military drill and physical fitness, first aid, swimming and survival.

TELETYPE OPERATOR . . . Army Pvt. Harvey L. Barrows, son of Howard L. Barrows of 5241 Willwood Rd., Rolling Hills, completed the 15-week radio teletype operation course at the Southeastern Signal School, Ft. Gordon, Ga., in early June. The 25-year-old soldier is a 1956 graduate of Redondo Union High School.

Army PFC Richard P. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Meyer, 4347 W. 177th St., completed an introduction to Real Estate course conducted by the U. S. Armed Forces Institute (USAFI) in early June while serving with the 4th Division at Fort Lewis, Wash.

The USAFI program offers correspondence courses at high school and college levels.

He is a 1959 graduate of Lutheran High School in Los Angeles and attended El Camino College.

Airman 3/c Theodore B. Landres is being reassigned to London, England, following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for data processing machine operators at Sheppard AFB, Tex.

The airman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Landres of 1910 1/2 Robinson St., Redondo Beach, is a graduate of Venice High School and is a former student at El Camino College.
