Field Trips On Schedule

Remaining summer field trips for children, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, include Catalina Island, Griffith Park and San Diego zoos, a beach outing, bowling day and a trip to Disneyland.

Average cost of field trips is $1 per child, including transportation and insurance. All trips are amply supervised by qualified recreation personnel.

Further information concerning up-coming tours can be obtained through the nearest park or playground.

During the week of July 8 to 12 three trips were taken with 215 children participating. Tours include Olvera Street, Chinatown, Marineland, Los Angeles and Long Beach harbors.

Michael Luyt Toastmaster Guest of Day

Michael Luyt, assistant area governor of District 5, was special guest of the day at the recent meeting of the Torrance-Lomita Realtors Toastmasters. Presiding as Toastmaster of the day was Charles Cederlof.

Awards presented were: "Cuba, Before and After Castro," award winning speech presented by Mrs. Barbara Marks; "The Masked Grandma," Bruce Lane; and critics award, Peter Mota.

Rodney Lewis led a lively session of impromptu "Table-Topics" and the meeting closed with a general evaluation by Jack Schmidt.

Arteriosclerotic heart disease (heart attack, coronary disease) causes more than one-third of all death among men in the 45-64 age group, according to the Los Angeles County Heart Assn.

ACCEPTS CHURCH POST . . .

Dr. Don McGaughy of Brookline, Mass., has accepted the position as minister of the Church of Christ at 3520 Emerald St. It was announced here yesterday by church elders. Dr. McGaughy is shown here with his wife, Lonnie, and children, Don Allen, Craig, and Lora Ann. He will succeed Minister Elmer Prout who is leaving for Okika, Japan, to serve as missionary and teacher at Ibaraki Christian College. Dr. McGaughy received bachelor of arts in religion from Abeline Christian College in 1951, master of arts from Harding in 1957, attended John Hopkins in 1957 and 1958, received a bachelor of sacred theology from Harvard four years ago and a doctor of theology from Boston University last month. He has been minister of the Brookline, Mass., congregation since 1957.

City Chamber To Co-Host Edwin Neilan

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce will co-sponsor a luncheon honoring Edwin P. Neilan, recently elected president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

The luncheon, to be held at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles Friday, Sept. 6, will honor Neilan's first visit to Southern California in his new capacity.

He is expected to deliver a major talk on the responsibilities of business. Neilan is president and chairman of the board of the Bank of Delaware, Wilmington, Del.

Other chambers of commerce joining the Torrance Chamber of Commerce in hosting the new president will be those of Alhambra, Beverly Hills, Burbank, Glendale, Hollywood, Long Beach, Los Angeles, Pasadena, Riverside and Santa Monica.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made through the local chamber office, 2204 Torrance Blvd.

Attends Seminar

Edward J. Scholossman, 21021 Doble Ave., teacher at Robert Peary Junior High School, is attending a summer counseling institute at the University of Southern California.

Only 30 secondary school teachers and counselors were accepted for the institute from the entire country.

Under provisions of the National Defense Education Act, participants in the institute are provided tuition costs and an additional living stipend.

Howard Frace of the Hollywood Riviera has joined the staff of Don E. Williams Co., 2500 Palos Verdes Drive North, as a real estate salesman. Frace, graduate of University of Southern California, was formerly associated with McKesson and Robbins.

Obituaries

JIMMIE MARTIN COOPER

Funeral services for Jimmie Martin Cooper, 2529 Lesserman, will be held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary at 10 a.m. Monday, the day which would have marked his 65th birthday.

Mr. Cooper, a hotel worker, died Thursday in Salt Lake City. He had lived in Torrance for 25 years.

The Rev. Robert Dehn of the First Baptist Church will officiate at Monday's services. Burial will be in Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Mr. Cooper is survived by his daughter, Era Dae Bledsoe, 2529 Lesserman, and a sister, Mrs. Paul Everidge, Norman, Okla.

Area Colleges Get National Science Grants

Senator Clair Engle announced this week that California colleges and universities have been awarded grants for new or continuing science programs totaling $789,682.

Long Beach State College received $13,260, and the University of California received $46,279. UCLA was awarded $75,000.

The grants were made by the National Science Foundation.
