

MARTIN MOREAU
To Manage Bank

Manager Named for New Bank

Martin Moreau has been appointed manager of the new Hawthorne-Artesia office of Crocker-Citizens National Bank, scheduled for opening on Jan. 10, it is announced by Roy A. Britt, vice chairman of the board.

Moreau joined Crocker-Citizens in 1956 after moving to California from Canada. Prior to his present appointment he served in various operational and administrative capacities, his most recent position being assistant manager of the bank's South Bay Office.

Active in civic and business affairs, Moreau is a member of the Redondo Beach Kiwanis Club. He resides in Palos Verdes Estates with his wife, Jeanne, and their four children.

Located at the southeast corner of Hawthorne and Artesia boulevards, the new Crocker-Citizens branch office will furnish all modern banking conveniences and services including a drive-up window, safe deposit boxes and an escrow department.

Now in its 94th year, Crocker-Citizens has 215 branch offices throughout California.

The embellishments of the person are poor substitutes for the charms of being, shining resplendent and eternal over age and decay. — Mary Baker Eddy.

Bike Safety Program to Continue

A bicycle safety program conducted in the Torrance schools has been renewed by the Torrance Board of Education.

Acting on a letter from Don Hartel, public education officer of the Torrance Police Department, the trustees voted to renew the three-year-old program and asked that letters of appreciation be sent to the Torrance Police Department and Fire Department volunteers who have conducted the program.

In his letter, Hartel said this year's program had been the best held so far. Twenty-eight of the 33 elementary schools participated, with nearly all students receiving instruction in bicycle safety.

Testimonial Scheduled for Judge Vincent S. Dalsimer

Lenny Kent, nightclub, television and movie comedian, will be one of the entertainers at a Testimonial Dinner for Superior Court Judge Vincent S. Dalsimer on Jan. 31 at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Governor Edmund G. "Pat" Brown will be the special honored guest and a speaker at the event, which originally was scheduled for Jan. 10.

Judge Dalsimer was Governor Brown's first appointment to his cabinet from Southern California, serving as director of the Department of Professional and Vocational Standards until his appointment in 1961 and subsequent election in 1962 to the Superior Court.

Now a presiding trial judge in a criminal division of Superior Court, Judge Dalsimer has served on the Juvenile Court bench and last month was re-appointed to Governor Brown's Advisory Committee on Problems of Children and Youth.

Judge Dalsimer has been a California Deputy Attorney General and has twice been elected to the Bellflower City Council.

We must never forget that a vitiated state of morals, a corrupted public conscience, is incompatible with true freedom. — J. Edgar Hoover.
