Halldale P-TA Halloween Celebration Successful

Many friends and parents of Halldale school were entertained at the gala Halloween celebration held at the Halldale school, Tuesday, October 31.

Miss Eileen Kime, kindergarten teacher at Halldale, and M.C. for the affair, started the proceedings promptly at 10:00 a.m. with the traditional costume parade by the school children. Prizes for the prettiest, most original, ugliest, and funniest costumes were awarded in the primary, intermediate, and upper divisions. Judges of the parade were: Mesdames Minot Rugg, President of Narbonne P.T.A.; Joe McClay, Walter Evans, J. H. Fanning, P. M. Halloran and M. R. Lawler.

Following the parade a play entitled "Halloween at the Back of the World" was presented by the after school playground dramatics class, under the direction of Mr. Don Heath, playground director; Mrs. John Blackmon, and Mrs. M. D. Hiebert, Halldale P.T.A. playground workers.

Cast included: Engene Minor, as "Zero the Hero," Darryl Moore portrayed "Dillion the Villian," witches were: Anna Pearl Provost, Mary Ann Hoag, and Dawn Sutton, the three little kittens were: Paul Andrade, Charles Biehn, and Marquita Davis, goblins were: Jack Elliot, Marlene McNally Joyce Cane, Darlene McDonald, Barbara Hiebert, and Carol Gremminger, the clock was Jerry McDonald.

A Halloween luncheon consisting of hot dogs, pop, doughnuts, nuts, ice cream, and coffee, prepared by the Halldale P.T.A. was then served to everyone.

Local Members

To Attend Job's Daughters Confab

Beverly Luster, Honored Queen, Marian McDonald, representative of Job's Daughters, and the Guardian Council will attend the International Order of Job's Daughters Convention. The convention will be held at the Cabrillo Hotel in Santa Barbara, on the 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th of November.

The members will attend the Grand Meet at the Convention. This convention is held once every year.

Two New Cub Scouts Join Waleria Pack

Waleria Cub Scout Pack 240-C held its regular meeting Friday night, October 27, in Waleria Recreation Hall with Cubmaster Eugene Kamfonk, conducting. Twenty-two Cubs and twenty-six parents attended.

Two new Cub Scouts joined the ranks - Wallace Wild and Jack Oreskovich, each accompanied by his mother, received Bobcat pins.

A hand-tooled copper plaque showing an Indian Thunderbird, made by Phillip Johnston and his Dad of Den 3 won first prize in the Handicraft awards. Wolf, Bear, and Lion symbols etched on polished maple took second prize for Dennis Harvey. Third prize went to Wallace Wild and his Dad for a very realistic Indian tomahawk.

The next Park meeting is scheduled for Nov. 24.

To show appreciation for Waleria P.T.A.'s sponsorship, the Pack Committee manned the balloon-busting booth at the Halloween Carnival held Tuesday night. Proceeds go to the P.T.A. for Child Welfare in the Community.

Board to Meet November 3

The Halldale P. T. A. executive board will meet Friday, November 3, 9:30 A. M. at the Halldale school.

Plans for the father night meeting of the P. T. A. will be discussed, and arrangements for the paper drive will be completed.

Food Sale Planned By Auxiliary

The benefit card party held by the Auxiliary of the Bert S. Crossland Post last week was well attended.

Honors in bridge were given to Mrs. C. Bjork and Mr. John Struch; in pinocle, Mrs. Jepsen and Mr. Vash; and in canasta, Mrs. Nelson and Mr. George Thompson.

Mrs. Annie Olson and her committee, Merle Younken, Ella Robinson, Dorothy Ross and Alie West served delicious refreshments and Halloween decorations were used.

A cooked food sale will be held Saturday, November 4th, in front of Almonds Department Store on Sartori in downtown Torrance.

The next regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be held November 14, and Mrs. Annie Olson, president and her membership chairman, Mrs. Teo Cunningham make a plea that all eligible women contact them and if they do not have transportation, Mrs. Olson will see that transportation is supplied, so the membership of this worthwhile organization will be increased.

There is such a need for workers in their different lines of welfare, rehabilitation, hospital work, beside the study and social life of the Auxiliary.

Contact Mrs. Olson at Torrance 823J and Mrs. Cunningham at Lomita 2385J.

Courtesy Night Plans Made by Trio Rebekah

Trio Rebekah Lodge met in regular session on October 26th at the regular meeting place in the California Hall with the Noble Grand, Mrs. Ona Pence presiding.

Plans were made at this time to attend the Courtesy night at the South Gate on November 10th with one member of the Financial Committee and one trustee being the special guests.

On November 17, the instruction to officers will be held at the Angeles Mesa Lodge, with the president of the Rebekah Assembly acting as the instructing officers.

Trio Lodge will exemplify the phase "Attending a visiting lodge in a body." An invitation was extended to Trio to attend the President's visit at Hawthorne on December 7th. At the close of the regular meeting a special degree was conferred on a number of members and proved quite a hilarious affair.

At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Belva Brase and her committee, consisting of Mrs. Ada Anderson, and Elizabeth Hunt.

BUSINESS MEETING

A business meeting of the Women of the Moose will be held at the Moose Club Hall, 1744 West Carson, on Wednesday, November 8th.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Mrs. Iona Steele, Senior Regent will be presiding officer.

Past Noble Grand Plans For Year

The Past Noble Grand Club met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Hunt on 5335 Feijoa Street, with Mrs. Clara Conner, Nora Luck and Pansy Coll as the co-hostesses.

As this was the regular meeting of the Club, 20 members responded to roll call.

The main topic of the evening was the arranging of the programs for the coming year. The President, Mrs. Lucy Harvey presided at the meeting. Plans were also made for the Annual Christmas dinner.

The next meeting of the Club will be on November 29th at the home of Mrs. Retta Nelson at 24315 Eshelman Avenue. At the close of the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

New Officers Of Sportsmen Club Installed

The Hollywood Riviera Sportsmen's Club installed their newly elected officers for the ensuing year at the Annual Dinner Meeting held at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club.

The outgoing president, Ray Borman, was presented a gold bound cherrywood gavel as an expression of appreciation from the Sportsmen for a job well done.

The newly elected officers are: President, Don Whitney; Vice President, Jim Byrd; Secretary, Tony Baldwin; Treasurer, Will Zens; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Jack Doyle. Executive Board includes Messrs. Demary, Trudo, and...

Methodist Church to Get Mahogany Pews

This past week the men of the Methodist Church have removed the old theater seats from the sanctuary and are preparing the floor for the installation of new mahogany pews. Temporary seating will be put in for the Sunday Services and the new pews will be installed on Monday.

All the rugs and draperies are being cleaned and other improvements and repairs are being made so that on Sunday, November 12 the congregation will enjoy the atmosphere of a beautiful church sanctuary.

Services on Sunday will be according to the new schedule adopted several weeks ago by the official board. The early service has been discontinued and the Church School for all ages of children and adults will begin at 9:30 a. m. and class at 10:40 a. m.

The morning worship service will begin at 10:50 instead of at 11 a. m. The Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet in the evening at 7 p. m.

Sunday will be membership Sunday and a large class of new members is expected to be received, according to Rev. Miller. The theme of the sermon will be "Partnership With God," which will deal with the membership vows of the church.

An organization of hostesses and ushers headed by Mrs. Grace Hooper, chairman of the Membership Committee, and Mr. Robert Reid, president of the Methodist Men's Club is on hand every Sunday morning to greet strangers and make everyone feel at home.

Harbor City Sing To Hear Vocal Solos

HARBOR CITY - Vocal solos by Mrs. Nicholas Betz and instrumental numbers by Shirley Washburn, Doyleen Williams, and Donald Snow will be featured 7:30 p.m. tomorrow night, Nov. 3 at the Harbor City Sing to be held in the Harbor City Elementary School auditorium at the corner of 25th and President avenues, announced Mrs. Marvin Scott, publicity.

The sing will be conducted by Vance Graham, of the Los Angeles Bureau of Music. Eleanor Cipolla will accompany on the piano.

Mrs. Betz will sing "Serenade" by Schubert, "Meet Me In St. Louis," and other musical numbers. She will be accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Guinn.

Shirley Washburn will solo on the marimba, Doyleen Williams will play accordion numbers, and Donald Snow will play the steel guitar. All three are students of the Bettie Thomas Accordionette Studio in Torrance.

Mrs. Scott also mentioned that, starting tomorrow night, there will be a prize given to the man with the longest feet and one given to the woman with the shortest feet.

The public is invited to attend, but children must be accompanied by adults.

First Baptist Church to Hear Quartet

Chief of Police Paul Kerr of Lynwood and his quartet will be singing and taking part in the evening service of the First Baptist Church of Torrance, this Sunday night.

Police Chief Kerr will also bring the message of the evening. Chief Kerr is the older brother of the famed Phil Kerr the Musical Evangelist.

The quartet has a very unique makeup of city officials. There are two ex-mayors, one superintendent of streets and the present chief of police. The group has been singing together for the past 22 years. They are a group well worth hearing while in this vicinity.

The Assistant Pastor, Rev. Russell Killman, is planning a series of special events for the Sunday evening services this fall. The public is cordially invited to attend this service in Torrance's largest, newest church.

Ladies Guild Breakfast To Be Nov. 14

On November 14th the Ladies Guild will put on a breakfast at the Guild Hall, Arlington at Marcellana, for the public. Breakfast will be served from 7 to 11 a.m.

Hot cakes, muffins, sauges, and coffee will be served. Donations will be accepted as payment for the breakfast. Everyone is urged to attend.

Proposition No. 1 is a misleading proposal which endangers the school system and all other local government services. Under the guise of repealing the personal property tax, it removes a huge tax burden from a few big taxpayers and transfers that burden to the average citizen.

WHICH IS BETTER FOR YOU?

$6.00 PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX OR 5 1/2% SALES TAX OR A $45.00 INCREASE IN TAX ON YOUR HOME

For example: If all the loss should be made up by the sales tax, it would mean a 50% increase, bringing the sales tax to 10 1/2% IN MOST LOCALITIES.
