TARTAR Football NOTES

By JIM LEECH
The Tartar machine did it again!
Last Friday night they upset the Redondo Beach Seahawks to the tune of 18-7 in the loser's pig-pen (if you know what I mean!).
The win for the Tartars stretches their winning streak to three straight. The victory for the Tartars puts them in a two-way tie for third place with Redondo.

Tomorrow night Redondo takes on Leuzinger while the Tartars have a week's rest, before they meet Inglewood on November 17th.

If the Tartars can beat Inglewood it would put them in a two-way tie for second place with them. That would be the highest the Tartars have finished in the Bay League schedule since they started four years ago.

Here is a short summary of last week's game with Redondo: The Tartars took an early lead in the first quarter when they marched down to Redondo's two yard line where fullback Burl Jones plowed through for six points.

The second quarter found the Tartars knocking on the door again when a Bill Crawford pass to left end Irwin asten clicked off fine. Kasten then lateraled to half back Amos Dandoy who went for six more big points.

In the third quarter Joe Clevenger found a big hole off left tackle and ran for 20 yards, threw a lateral off to halfback Glynn Boyce, who carried the pigskin the remaining 20 yards for the last touchdown.

The fourth quarter went scoreless after the Tartars got down to the Seahawks two-yard line, then punched it over, but a Tartar was offside and the touchdown was called back. Both the Tartars and the Seahawks have won two games apiece against each other and promise to be the Bay League's biggest rivals for the many football seasons to come.
