Torrance's miracle baby quietly observed its first month of life in a warm and snug incubator in the nursery of Torrance Memorial Hospital last Tuesday, Dec. 5.

The two pound infant is reported to be holding its own after overcoming a slim chance of survival at birth. Dr. Kurt Shery, attending physician said the baby would remain in the incubator until it weighed five pounds.

The child was recently named Vernon Eugene Owens, Jr., and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Owens of 166 W. 215 Street. The parents have not as yet seen the infant and it is doubtful if they will see him until he is removed from the incubator.

Grandparents of the youngster are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warren of 1157 W. 223 Street. He has a sister, eight years old.
