McCollum Buick Observes Second Anniversary Here

Celebrating their second anniversary in Torrance, McCollum Buick, 1512 Cabrillo Ave. announced that over 700 cars have been sold in the last two years to satisfied Torrance folks, according to Duke Fielder, manager of the local lot, this constitutes a gross of nearly $1,000,000.

Fielder, who has been affiliated with McCollum Buick for the past three years pointed out that "Business is built on repeat business, so we give the best deals, with honest sales, and the best servicing to our car owners." Les Roach, chief salesman at the Torrance lot is well known and liked in Torrance, and has been with McCollum since the opening of the lot. A resident of Torrance, Roach and his family reside at 1449 W. 214th St.

Women Hold Joint Meet

Torrance's Business and Professional Women's Club along with several chapters from neighboring communities sponsored a meeting for members and friends recently which was held in the Pathfinder Club in Compton. Approximately 150 women attended.

The major address was made by Mrs. Ivy A. Grace, first vice president of the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. She spoke on "Full Partnership Ahead."

In her talk she stressed integrity, unity of purpose and action, and good citizenship.

President Lily Anthony announced that a talent show would be held by the Business Women Nov. 30 in Hawthorne.
