

Credit Unions to Hold Birthday Dinner Here

A dinner celebrating the 105th International Credit Union Day will be held at American Legion Hall this evening, it was announced yesterday by Joe Alden, of the credit association at National Supply Co.

John D. Spalding, works manager of National Supply Co. will be the speaker of the evening, it was reported.

Music will be provided by the Tunetwisters.

Alden stated that the 68 unions to be represented at the affair represent an aggregate total of over $10,000,000 in credit union investments.

Driver Uninjured As Giant Cement Truck Overturns

Al E. Carr, of 2735 W. 175th St., must have had a lucky charm in his pocket last Saturday. Carr escaped serious injury when the truck he was driving, containing ten tons of wet cement, rolled over twice as he rounded a curve at 195th St. and Moneta Ave.

The cement that poured from the ready-mix truck had already begun to harden before tow trucks righted the overturned vehicle, police reported.

Man Stabbed: Woman Bar Owner Held

Joseph De La Motte, 42, of 604-A Madrid Ave., is in critical condition at the Southside Community Hospital in Los Angeles following a knifing which climaxed an argument early Sunday in a Lennox cocktail bar.

Booked by Lennox sheriff's deputies on suspicion of assault to commit murder was Mrs. Sarah McLanigan, 39, co-proprietor of the bar at 11221 Prairie Ave., where the stabbing took place.

Mrs. McLanigan was quoted by deputies as saying "I hope I killed him" when being put under arrest, which she resisted violently. Later she denied the stabbing. She was placed in the jail cell at the Lennox station and then moved to the county jail.

No reason for the argument and stabbing has yet been uncovered.

Hardware Store Changes Hands

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parsons announce that they have taken over ownership and management of the Walteria Plumbing and Hardware store, located at 24051 Neece Ave., in Walteria.

Parsons disclosed that he and his wife, currently residents of Long Beach, are looking around for a suitable home, and plan to move into Walteria as soon as possible.
