

AL President Holds Dinner For Officers

Mrs. Carl Ross, the American Legion Auxiliary president, entertained her officers and chairmen who have served under her this past year at a dinner in her San Pedro home recently.

After dinner, the guests went into the rumpus room for card games. Winners with the highest scores were Mrs. James Wilkes, Clarence Youngken, Harry Green and Kenneth Cunningham.

Mrs. Ross presented each guest with a small gift in appreciation of the year's work.

Walteria Scouts Prepare for Camp

Bob Wagner, scout master of Boy Scout Troop No. 240, announced last week at a meeting of the Walteria Business Men's Club, that he was in need of transportation for 20 boys to Camp Big Horn at Arrowhead. The boys will be encamped for the period July 21 to August 1 inclusive. He also announced that the Troop would hold a court of honor at the Walteria Recreation Hall, Monday evening, June 29 at 7 p.m. Robert Adams, a member of troop No. 240, will be presented the Star Award. The public is invited to attend.

Last Meeting Held By Parent Class

The Parent Education Class held its final meeting June 11 with a pot luck supper highlighting the evening. Gifts of appreciation were presented by the members to Mrs. Marjorie Jordan, director, and Mrs. Charles Hardinghouse, president.

Officers for the forthcoming year were elected as follows: Mrs. Ralph Schmidt, president; Mrs. Robert Evans, vice-president; Mrs. George Champion, secretary; Meade Ferguson, treasurer.

Enrollment for the class and for the nursery school has already begun. Interested parents should contact the membership chairman, Mrs. James Cahow, 804 Maple, FA. 8-1638.

Park Starts Day Camp This Week

This Tuesday, June 23, at 9:30 began the Day Camp to be held at Avalon-Sepulveda Park. It will be on Tuesday and Thursday for the first four weeks of school vacation. July 16 will be the last date. Boys and girls 6 years to 12 have been registering at the Park and can continue to do so.

A program that will present camp activities without having to leave the Park is the aim of the mothers volunteering to help. There will be games, nature study, nature craft, story telling. After lunch will come square dancing, music, games, crafts and a final surprise. Each day's lunch will be planned. A list of the meals planned is given at the time of registration. Each child will have milk with his lunch.

Meeting

Mrs. Madeleine South, chairman of the Day Camp, presided at a meeting recently planning the specific activities and crafts for each meeting of day camp. Present were Mrs. Bonnie Hartley, Lilyan Vegg, Ardy's Svehla, Thelma Levy, Sylvia Meer, Lucille Kuehne, June Sunderland, Genevieve Buchroeder, Flora Wasti as well as Miss Diane Thatcher and Mrs. Dorothy Kemper.

Others who are helping, but because of the type of their activities it was not necessary that they be there are: Mrs. Thelma Hunter, Rose Lewis, Allie Rader, Georgia Ross, Alyce Clark, Betty Trefethen, Jewel Foster, Theresa Edwards, Frances Samelak, Anita

Help Needed

A few more mothers are needed to help. Someone to assist the leader in games and to supervise two of the groups of children of the same age. Mothers who would like to help the program but think they wouldn't be able to because of having to care for small children, will be relieved to know that Mrs. Ardy's Svehla is going to take care of the small children of the
