McEwen Opens Realty Office

R. D. McEwen, who has been with the Bob Haggard realty office for a year and a half, announced the opening of his own realty office this week at 1313 Carbrillo Ave.

McEwen stated that he wished "to thank all my many friends and acquaintances for their cooperation while with Mr. Haggard. It has been a pleasure being with the office from a personal and professional point of view."

McEwen, who lives at 1977 Reynosa, has a son and a married daughter.

He is chairman of the Caravan Multiple Listing Board and a member of the Masons and Eastern Stars.

The soul and spirit that animates and keeps up society is mutual trust.

Local Performers Slated in Pageant

A group of Lomita performers headed by Ernest Kittrell, 20, will highlight the Richard-Martin Annual Summer Pageant at Anaheim high school Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Viewed each year, the pageant will feature Kittrell, Mary Ann Zampirro, Sandra Gish, Mickey Turner, Mike Daisy, Deanna Shriver, Ruth Larson and Anita Schultz, students of Nadine Nichol, Torrance voice teacher.

Kittrell, a singer and dancer, recently completed a show for Marines at Camp Pendleton and is vocalist with Sid Larson's Orchestra.
