QUEEN POSES: Althea Steodham, 16-year-old brunette, poses for Bob Huling, 17, as the pair got together as first entrants in the Second Annual Teen King and Queen contest, sponsored by the Carson Chamber of Commerce. The contestants will vie for a top prize of a $100 wardrobe and will have an opportunity to earn many other prizes in the event which will benefit youth activity work. A three day carnival will climax the event on June 11, 12 and 13, Carson Chamber of Commerce Photo.

Corporal Takes Leaders Course

Richard M. Rojo, whose wife lives at 818 Madrid avenue, recently completed the army discussion leaders course at X Corps headquarters in Korea. A troop information and education specialist in the Eighty-eighth Military Police company, Rojo received training in the preparation of lesson plans, lectures and methods of instruction and demonstration.

Corporal Rojo, son of Mrs. F. Rojo, 1419 Elm street, arrived in the Far East last July. He entered the Army in January, 1953.

14 Teen-Agers Seek Top Contest Titles

Battle lines were clearly drawn on all fronts today as 14 candidates, eight girls and six boys, squared off for top honors in the Second Annual Carson Chamber of Commerce Royal Teen contest and carnival.

While three new candidates filed entry blanks, several others picked up sponsors who have pledged an all-out campaign to elect their candidates to the top office. The contest will provide funds for the Carson Chamber's youth activity work.

Candidates Latest entrants are Pat Till,

15, of 440 E. 234th Walk; Judy Tompkins, 19, 23231 Anchor ave. and Ellyne Guthrie, 16, 22938 Dolores st. A few more candidates are expected to file before the final deadline. Chairman Herb Blank said.

Topping the sponsor list is Bob Weitknecht, 17, of 326 E. 236th st., who was chosen by a 20-member girl's club of Scott Park as their candidate. The girls, failing to reach agreement on a "queen" candidate compromised by sponsoring Bob for the king role. They have pledged to elect him or bust.

Others Veteran's of Foreign Wars Post No. 9888 tucked a pair of candidates under their wing and each member is pledged to do everything possible to insure their selection. The post will sponsor Mike Kall, while the auxiliary will back Pat Hamilton.

The newly formed Democratic Club of Carson has grouped its support behind Peggy Joyce, while Harbor Drive-In will lend every assistance possible to

Unemployment Figures Rise

Unemployment in this district moved upward again during the last week, according to figures released by the local office of the California State Employment office.

At present 2768 persons have filed for unemployment assistance compared to 2333 during March and 1531 during April of 1953.

Breakdown by communities shows Torrance, 1083; Gardena, 502; South Bay cities, 738; Lomita, Harbor City and miscellaneous, 445.

Men dominate the ranks of the jobless with 1750 seeking aid to 1018 women.

P-TA Magazine Breakfast

Mrs. W. E. Zell, president-elect of 259th pl. P-TA and Mrs. Palmer Orseth recently attended the magazine breakfast held by the Tenth District P-TA Council at South Gate.

Carol Stevens.

Althea Steodham and Ed Murray, two early entrants, will have to do their campaigning under severe handicap. Murray is in the hospital where he underwent another operation on an injured leg while Althea is confined to her home with the mumps. Supporters of the two handicapped entrants vow their illness will not be permitted to force them out of the contest.

Prizes

Henry Blythe, chairman of the contest committee, said several candidates had qualified for extra prizes offered in the contest, having polled the required number of votes. Prizes of pen and pencil sets, cameras, bathing suits and sweaters are available to all candidates as added awards. Top prize for the winners in each division will be a $100 wardrobe.

Tretheway Denounces Incumbent

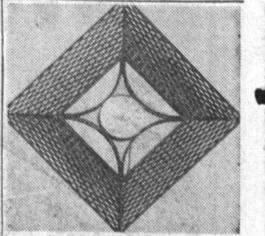

Richard L. Tretheway, the only officially endorsed Republican candidate for State Assembly from the 67th District yesterday denounced incumbent Democrat Clayton Dills' vote against the 1954-1955 state budget as "another failure to represent the people who elected him."

"Sixty-four assemblymen and all 35 senators voted for it, with only 12 assemblymen voting against it. Dills' negative vote certainly did not represent the views of his district or of the people of the State of California," Tretheway continued.

PE BANQUET

K. L. Anderson, Pacific Electric agent for Torrance, with office at 1200 Border avenue, will attend the 32nd annual Pacific Electric Railway association banquet Tuesday, April 27, in the ballroom of Rodger Young auditorium, Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Charles Baker, 25251 S. Vermont, announce the birth of a son, Clinton Jerome, born on April 9, at Torrance Memorial hospital, and weighed 7 pounds and 1 1/2 ounces.

Have you been looking for an attractive clock? This one would add charm to any home. Available in black or brass, has fine electric movement and is 22 1/2 inches square. Specially priced at $22.50.
