

Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Anderson, Chandler-Western Oil and Development Co., announce the birth of a son and daughter, whom they have named Jan Rene and Jean Rynn. The new infants were born on April 25, at Torrance Memorial hospital and Jan weighed 5 pounds and 13 ounces, and Jean 7 pounds and 8 ounces.

'Y' MAPS SUMMER CAMPING SCHEDULE

The Torrance YMCA this summer will take 170 boys of this area to camps in the San Bernardino and High Sierra mountains, Executive Secretary Stan Roberts announced this week.

The branch has received schedules and information folders from the Los Angeles YMCA's camp office and will start taking applications immediately.

The program includes one eight day trip for boys from 9 to 14 years old, and one eight day trip for boys 12 to 16 years.

The Harbor Boy Scouts District announces a den mothers training course at the Dolores Street School, 223rd and Dolores streets, Wilmington, starting Thursday evening, May 6, at 7:30 p.m. and continuing for seven weekly sessions.

All interested in this training are cordially invited to attend.

The unique High Sierra Caravan trip will leave with 30 campers July 29 and return August 5. Itinerary of the 1000 mile trip includes stops at Mammoth Lakes, Bodie ghost town, Tuolumne Meadows and Yosemite. Youngsters 12 to 16 will do their own cooking and sleep under the stars.
