VA KAY YARDAGE . . . This new yardage store is located on Cabrillo near Paul's Chevrolet.

It features a wide variety of fabrics. Every dress will be strictly original.

Yardage Center Opens; Offers Original Designs

Fabrics, dressmaking, alterations, and designing will be the main features of the new Va Kay Yardage Center at 1614 Cabrillo near Paul's Chevrolet, according to the owners, Paul and Myrtle Va Kay.

"Every dress will be an original . . . there'll be absolutely no duplications," Mrs. Va Kay said. "I can offer our customers speedy service and quality rush-jobs on request."

Mrs. Va Kay points to 17 years of dressmaking experience in the East.

The cheerful-looking store carries summer cotton, staple items, and novelty prints. Sample dresses used for display will be on sale, the owners announced.

Ample free parking space is available for the convenience of customers both in front and in back of the store.

Mrs. Va Kay said that she would be glad to assist customers in pattern cutting. Va Kay's will also make children's clothing upon request.

Marine Stadium Regatta

Bill Effinger and Don Quillvan will be among the top water jockeys of the United Speedboat association to enter the race at the Long Beach marine stadium Sunday May 9. The first race starts at noon, it was disclosed.

Paper Drive Set By 259th Pl. P-TA

The 259th Place P-TA is conducting a paper drive on Tuesday May 11 from 7:30 a.m. to 12 noon. Awards will go to students bringing in the largest amount of papers and rags. Old mattresses are also in demand. Anyone wishing to have articles picked up should call Mrs. C. L. Wilson at DA 6-3963, or Mrs. J. O. Powers at DA 6-1906.

Mrs. W. E. Zell, president-elect of 259th Place P-TA, recently returned from the state convention of P-TA in San Francisco. The 259th Place teachers were recently entertained by P-TA board members with a luncheon. Helping with the affair were Mesdames F. Deck, R. W. Gerhart, J. W. Creager, R. P. Boderman, H. O. Wasmund, C. L. Wilson, R. E. Pralin, and J. O. Powers.
