Hornets, Clerks Win Softball Opening Game

Harbor Hornets Softball, from the Los Angeles Harbor General Hospital, smashed out a decisive, 13-5, win over Dow Styron's newly organized team in last Monday's first game at Torrance Park.

The game marked the official opening of 1954 Torrance Recreation Softball League's season of play.

William Wiley, winning pitcher, allowed but five scattered hits, while his teammates were combing the offerings of opponent hurler Mike Mikelson for 13 base knocks.

Second sacker Thomas Beverly led the winners attack at the plate, with a double and a single in four trips.

Vern Booth, shortstop and manager, duplicated this stick-work for the losers.

Marine Clerks dumped Longren Aeros, 11-3, in the second encounter. Hank Olsen, winning pitcher, gave up but five hits during his six innings on the mound.

Dee Burgess, who relieved him in the last inning, faced but four batsmen but was nicked for a homerun down the rightfield line by Longren's first baseman, John Podgurski.

Charlie Camou, losing pitcher, got a measure of revenge for the 13 base hits he allowed by having a perfect night at bat, collecting all of Longren's first three hits off Olsen, including a mighty homer to right centerfield in the sixth inning.
