'Tuna Time' Replaces Coffee Hour

There'll be no more coffee hours for Bob Finch, 17th District Congressional nominee — from now on it'll be "Tuna Time" at his home meetings with voters.
The idea, Finch says, is to point out to housewives the many delicious dishes in which tunafish can be prepared, and to tell the voters in his district about the serious financial situation facing the tuna fishing industry at San Pedro.

Employment of Mary Jean Eaton as an elementary teacher in the Torrance Unified School District was approved by the Board of Education.

FIRST TO OFFER COLOR TV in Torrance is Torrance TV, 1629 Cravens ave. Charles Reed, owner of the store, gets ready to demonstrate the set which features a 205 square inch screen and comes in both table model and console styles.

Torrance TV First To Offer Color TV Locally

First store to make color-TV available to Torrance residents is Torrance TV at 1629 Cravens ave. A limited number of sets are now available.
Charles Reed, owner and operator of the local TV store, is anxious to demonstrate the new sets to local residents.
The 19" screen (205 square inches) will receive both color or black and white. Sets come in the table model and console varieties.
Reed, a prominent Torrance merchant since 1949, stated that the sets are available for immediate delivery.

Democratic Candidates To Appear At Round-Robin Rally Tuesday

The 68th District Democratic Council is again taking part in a round-robin rally to be held in three locations concurrently. The rally spots are Inglewood, Del Aire, and in the Carson Area at the Plasterer's Hall, 522 W. Carson Street. Starting time is 8:00 P.M., Tuesday, October 19.
Pat Ahern will act as emcee of the evening and will introduce, among other notables, Richard Graves, gubernatorial nominee; Edward Roybal, candidate for Lt. Governor; Sam Yorty, Richard Richards, Assemblyman Vincent Thomas, and Congressman Cecil R. King.

Democratic leaders have emphasized that this is the only time that a complete slate of Democratic candidates will be presented at one time in this area before the November election.
At the end of the session Graves, along with other candidates will remain to enjoy refreshments with visitors. There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Burglary Suspect Escapes

Police are searching for Paul E. Dilbeck, 45, who escaped from custody at the Compton Municipal court Monday around noon. Dilbeck took off in a light blue stolen '51 Chevy.
He appeared in this area when he stopped off for a few minutes at the home of his brother-in-law at 1925 Gramercy. Dilbeck weighs 157 pounds, has black hair, hazel eyes, and tattoos of women on both arms.
A three-time loser, he was held on charges of burglary.
He was wearing gray gabardine slacks and a brown shirt when he escaped.
