

LIPPOLDTS HOST GROUP PRECEDING TGP DANCE

The Otto Lippoldts of 1203 Fonthill avenue hosted a group of friends and neighbors last Saturday evening at a pre-dance get-together before attending the Torrance Gardens & Plaza Homeowners soiree at the Alondra Club.

Gathered at the Lippoldt home were Bill and Clay Starr, Lonnie and Lee Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moyer, the Bill Foxes, the Mark Caldwells, Joe and Dolores Saba, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrett, Mary and Bob Thompson, and Tom and Pat Thornton.

Tom Thornton took off for Lancaster after the dance, for a pre-dawn pheasant hunt which lacked one bird to match the success of last week's hunt when he and Pat went with friends to Sacramento where they bagged a single specimen.

JAYCETTES TO BRIGHTEN HOLIDAYS FOR ELDERLY

The Torrance Jaycettes have elected to make Christmas brighter for the elderly patients at Harbor General Hospital with small personal gift items. Chairman of the committee is Esther D'Ornellas, and assisting her will be Dorothy Banks, Jean Herren, Lorraine Stanton, and Helen Percy, who will oversee the shopping and wrapping of gifts.

At their recent meeting the Jaycettes added two new directors to their board, bringing the number of board members up to seven. They previously had only five. The new directors are Mesdames Ester (John D'Ornellas), and Dorothy (Joseph) Banks.

The election was necessitated by the need to enlarge the board in ratio to the tremendous increase in membership during the past year.

The next board meeting of the Jaycettes will be at the home of Mrs. D'Ornellas, 805 Felbar avenue, Tuesday evening, December 14, at 7:30 p.m.

At that time the final arrangements will be made for the Christmas project, as well as the Christmas party planned for the members on December 21 at the Palms.

Nearly 200 Gather For Longacre Rites

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT DEAN SUCH . . . Married during candlelight ceremony at Torrance First Baptist Church recently.

A throng of approximately two hundred friends and relatives were present at the First Baptist Church of Torrance as the Rev. Douglas Jeffrey officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremonies that joined in marriage Miss Carolyn Elsie Longacre and Robert Dean Such on November 21.

Candlelighters in Yellow
Lighting the tapers for the ceremony were Candlelighters Georgia Kinnemon and Anita Pinkston. Blending with the flickering flames were their pale yellow gowns of net over taffeta with little taffeta boleros. Completing the sunny color theme, yellow carnations were used for their arm corsages.

Preceding the bride, little Kathy Falls carried red rose petals in her flower girl's basket, and she wore a bouffant dress of baby blue net over taffeta sparked by pink ribbon bows.

Given Away by Father
The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Longacre of 1544 El Prado, was given in marriage by her father. Her bridal gown was fashioned of layers of tulle over taffeta, the fitted lace bodice enhanced by a scalloped decollete trimmed with sequins. The long lace sleeves were pointed at the wrists, and she carried a bouquet of cascading white carnations encircling a white orchid. Her chapel veil was edged with lace and held by a jeweled and lace-trimmed tiara.

Miss Marilyn Powell was maid of honor and wore a gown of deep pink net over taffeta with lace bodice and matching bolero. Her flowers

SANTA WILL VISIT MADRONA KINDERGARTEN

A Christmas party for kindergarten students in Miss Patricia Mason's class at Madrona elementary school has been scheduled for 10 a.m. December 17. A real Santa Claus will be present to help distribute gifts, according to Mrs. Ross Harp, room mother.

Santa Claus, alias Leo Wagner, is offering his services to local groups courtesy of the Naval Supply Depot Boosters Association in San Pedro.

Santa Claus Wagner will offer his services free of charge to any group. He may be reached by calling DA. 4-2990.

were cascading pale pink carnations touched with pale pink ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Misses Iris Maurer, Mariann Lamon, Norma Farrar, and Judy Latta. Their dresses, fashioned like Miss Powell's were of pale pink, and their bouquets were tied with deep pink ribbons.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Such of 2219 Andreo, Torrance, was attended by James Farrar as best man. Escorting guests to their seats were ushers Benny Watson, David Reiffell, Bill Szieff, and Hugh Bowman.

Grandmother Present
At the large reception held at the Torrance Baptist Recreation Hall, several out-of-town guests were present, including Mrs. Ward Myers, the groom's grandmother, and Mrs. Mary Kopan, his aunt, both from Alliance Ohio.

Upon return from their honeymoon in Sequoia National Park, the young couple will reside at 1544 El Prado. The bridegroom is owner and operator of the Associated service station at 2121 Carson, and is a 1953 graduate of Torrance High school.

The bride is a senior at Torrance High school, where she is a reporter on the staff of the school paper, the T.N.T.

LIGHTHEARTED MOOD . . . As newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Nieman, nee Marlene Marie Davies, exchange samples of wedding cake at their reception in Vernon Muehler home following nuptials at Torrance First Lutheran Church.

Marlene Davies Wed In Lutheran Church

The beautiful new First Lutheran Church of Torrance was the setting recently of the wedding of Marlene Marie Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Davies of 1637 W. 226th street, Torrance, and Leonard E. Nieman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Nieman of 402 East 189th street, Gardena.

Awards, Fun Mark Perry Scout Meet

Cub Scouts of Pack 953, sponsored by Perry P.T.A. enjoyed tug-of-war contests, songs and entertainment at the pack meeting, Friday, November 19, at Perry School auditorium.

Dens 4 and 5, under the direction of Cubmothers Mrs. Gordon Ware and Mrs. Roy Dohner, presented information on figures from American history. Cubmaster Carl Swansonstrom conducted the meeting and awarded badges to ten boys.

Bear badges were won by Randy Mack and David Smith; wolf badges by Jerome Lemberger and Joey Rutschman. Freddy MacKenzie earned a two-year pin. Doug Jackson and Jerome Lemberger were given dinner stripes, while Marvin Watkins and Chris Gresham were chosen assistant denners. Gold arrows were presented to Terry Dotson, Joe Rosenblatt and David Smith. Silver arrows went to Doug Jackson and Joe Rosenblatt.

The Pack held a do-nut drive Saturday morning, November 20, in which all the Cubs participated.

White Satin Brocade

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a fitted gown of brocaded white satin. Her bridal veil was held by a tiara encrusted with white seed pearls, and she carried white carnations centered with a white orchid en bouquet.

Her only attendant was her sister, Marquita Davies, who wore pastel green net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of deep pink carnations.

Brother Best Man
Attending his brother as best man, was Richard Nieman, and serving as usher was Mickey Davies, brother of the bride.

During the ceremony, conducted by the pastor of the Lutheran Church, Rev. Paul Wenske, Nuptial music filled the church as organist Mrs. Ruth White played "O Perfect Love" and the Wedding March. Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Torrance residence of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Muehler at 22621 Eastwood court. Miss Jackie Wall served as registrar at the guest book.

Both the bride and the groom are graduates of Narbonne High School, the groom now serving in the Marine Corps at Treasure Island, near San Francisco.

Leila Bean Marries John Edward Hardy

Miss Leila Mae Bean, daughter of the William H. Beans of 25323 Walnut, Lomita, exchanged vows November 26, with John Edward Hardy, son of Mrs. Lili Hardy Wood, of 25213 Walnut, Lomita, during a candlelight ceremony conducted by Rev. Rosine, pastor of the Methodist Wayside Chapel in Lomita.

Escorted by Father
As she walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, the bride's ankle length gown of white satin reflected the light of the tapers. White lace was used for the gown's fitted bodice and the long sleeves which ended in calla points, and lace insets were used on the net overskirt. A headpiece composed of net and flowers caught the fingertip length bridal veil, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations on a white Bible.

Miss Ethel Lee Bean was maid of honor for her sister, and she wore a ballerina length gown of aqua crystalette with matching hat. Pale pink carnations composed her bouquet.

Groom Attended by Brother
Lonny Wood served as his brother's best man, while Fred Paderson and Danny P. Rickalo ushered.

About one hundred friends and kin gathered in the church annex following the ceremony for the reception held in honor of the newlyweds. For the occasion Mrs. Bean chose a smoky rose lace dress accented by a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore pale blue complemented by a red rose shoulder piece.

School Affiliations
Both of the newlyweds attended Harbor Junior College, and graduated from Narbonne High School. Leila Mae is a vocational nurse at Harbor Hospital, and is still attending college classes part time.

The groom spent four years in the Air Force, and is presently employed by the City of Los Angeles.

Keystone Women Set Xmas Party

The Women's Club of Keystone will hold a Christmas party and serve a potluck luncheon on Wednesday, December 8, at noon in the women's clubhouse, 127 E. 220th street.

Following the business meeting at 1 p.m. with Mrs. J. H. Parker presiding, members will exchange Christmas gifts. There will also be Christmas carols by the members accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Morton, music chairman.
