FIRST BIRTHDAY DINNER SET BY BOY SCOUTS

Boy Scout Troop 728, sponsored by Fern-Greenwood P.T.A. held their first birthday dinner Friday, March 4, in the cafeteria of the Fern-Greenwood school. The event included a potluck dinner for the families of Scout members.

Entertainment by scouts and merit awards were given. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the trophy "Egbert," (the "Oscar" award of the Troop) to the Scout having earned the greatest number of points during the past year. Keen competition has prevailed in this field.

A scrap drive is now in progress as a fund-raising project to raise money to purchase a truck for commuting to camp sites. An appeal is being made for any type of scrap metal, and a pick up may be arranged by calling W. C. Fulton, FAirfax 8-1523. The troop recently experienced a successful doughnut sale and it is hoped that purchase of the truck may soon be realized, it was announced by troop press sources.
