Mrs. Younger Addresses Kenny Campaign Workers

To honor all volunteer section chairmen working on the May Sister Kenny campaign, a convention was held May 2 at the Sister Kenny Polio Hospital in El Monte, according to an announcement by Mrs. Paul Underwood, Torrance city chairman.

Mrs. Mildred Younger, prominent political and civic leader serving as county chairman for the Sister Kenny campaign, was guest speaker.

"The Salk Vaccine" will be the subject of a speech by Clarke H. Lauder, M.D., chief of staff of the Sister Kenny Polio hospital.

Mrs. Younger recently pointed out that despite the gratifying news of the Salk Vaccine, of the Sister Kenny polio hospital will again be taxed to the maximum at least this year.

Sermon on Spirit of Motherhood

"Mother symbolizes the feminine aspect of the Trinity," says Dr. Earl D. Barnum, in reference to his Sunday topic, "The Spirit of Motherhood."

"This aspect is the medium through which life manifests itself. It is the Universal Soul and has been called the 'Womb of Nature,' or the 'Holy Mother,' and is receptive to the Spirit."

Sunday services of the Church of Religious Science, Junior Church, and Metateens are held concurrently at 10:45 a.m. in the Masonic Temple, Redondo Beach. A nursery is provided.

The Youth of Religious Science meets at 7 p.m. Sunday in the Classrooms, 503 South Catalina, Redondo Beach. The public is cordially invited.

YW Plans Neighborhood Coffee Hours

Plans for a series of coffee hours to interpret YWCA membership to neighborhood groups were made at the meeting of the Torrance membership committee headed by Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom.

A report was made by Mrs. Allen Pyeatt of the coffee held last week in her home at 804 Cerise.

Mrs. Sandstrom reported on the Harbor District annual meeting which she had attended. An evaluation of the Torrance annual meeting was also made.

Plans were made for the lunch to be served to the TEAC by the group on May 9.

The next meeting of the membership committee will be held on Wednesday, May 25, at 10 a.m. An evaluation will be made of the years activities in the light of present membership goals, and program plans for the coming year will also be formulated Mrs. Sandstrom announced.

Those on the Torrance membership committee are Mesdames Sandstrom, Clara Conner, L. L. Enger, Stanley B. Jaskston, Allen L. Pyeatt, Paul Shinoda, Thomas Westfall, R. A. Kelsey, and F. E. Inman.

Mrs. H. C. St. Martin of St. Andrews Episcopal church is general chairman of the afternoon program and Mrs. A. C. Turner is in charge of ushers. Mrs. Walter Stanton will offer the closing prayer.

Meeting to Precede
Preceding the afternoon program, Mrs. Solomon will preside at the business meeting at 10 a.m. At this time Mrs. E. J. Hosking will report for the nominating committee. At noon, the group will have coffee together in the dining room. Members are to bring their own sandwiches.

Children will be cared for in the nursery from 10 a.m. until the close of the afternoon service at 2:30 p.m.

Water Sports Enjoyed by Y-Wives

The Torrance Y-Wives met at the Long Beach YWCA last Friday morning for an hour of swimming and water ball. Just for fun, the women inscribed their names on linen paper under water. Names on the roll were Ruth Swanson, Joy Slothower, Marian Tenz, Lois Martin, Peggy Randall, Jean West, Carol Wyatt, Bonnie Guokos, Joan Cook, Phyllis Kelsey, Virginia Johnson, Charlotte Luke, Phyllis Inman, Jean Townsend, Florence Tan and Janice Young.

The next swimming session is scheduled to be held in Long Beach Friday morning, May 20.

Last Friday, April 29, interested women in Torrance area were invited to join the Y-Wives at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 West Carson, at 9:30 a.m. for healthful exercises and dance instruction under the direction of Anne Douglas, professional choreographer and instructor. Child care was available at the Episcopal church. Light refreshments will be served to participants and children.

Beauticians June Hansley and Marie Hall representing Beauty Counselors will be next on the program for Friday, May 6, 9:30 a.m. Someone present will have the opportunity of receiving the benefits of personalized skin care and make-up. Children will be cared for as usual during the program.

Program Planned for May Fellowship Day

Women from many Torrance churches will meet tomorrow, May 6, in the First Methodist church, 1551 El Prado, to observe May Fellowship Day. Mrs. Arthur G. Solomon, president of the Torrance Council of United Church Women which sponsors the program, states that the local meeting is part of a nationwide observance on May 6.

The program at 1 p.m. will open with a prayer by the Rev. John Taylor of the Methodist church. The worship service will be under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Mosley of the First Christian church. Participating will be Mrs. F. A. Brunson, church of the Nazarene; Mrs. Henry D. Revelle, First Baptist church; and Mrs. H. Rampley, WALTERIA Community Methodist church. Mrs. R. T. Brundin is to play the organ.

Play to be Presented
A play written especially for May Fellowship Day by Nora Stirling of the American Theatre Wing is to be presented under the direction of Rev. Don Shelby, assistant pastor of the Methodist church. The cast will include Rev. Shelby as "Frank," Mrs. John L. Taylor as "Helen," Bob Mullen as "Bobby," and Herm Cobrea as "John." The play, "Point of Beginning," concerns the theme of the day, "The Responsible Christian Family."

Mrs. H. C. St. Martin of St. Andrews Episcopal church is general chairman of the afternoon program and Mrs. A. C. Turner is in charge of ushers. Mrs. Walter Stanton will offer the closing prayer.

Nativity Moms Plan Carnival On May 18

The annual Nativity School Carnival slated for Wednesday, May 18, will highlight the discussion at the regular monthly meeting of the Nativity School Mothers Club Tuesday evening, May 10. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the parish hall.

The carnival, which is open to the public, is the club's largest project of the year, and a very gala day is being planned, club press sources report.

Beginning at noon, the affair will open with a hot dog lunch. Throughout the afternoon and evening entertainment will be provided for the entire family at numerous booths including games, movies, prizes, white elephant. The food booth will feature tacos, chili, and hot dogs, and the drink booth will serve coffee, soft drinks, and desserts.

Highlight of the carnival will be the coronation of the Carnival King and Queen to be held at 8 p.m.

Refreshments at the club's meeting Tuesday will be served by the second grade room mothers who will be hostesses for the evening.

The third grade room won the attendance banner for having the most mothers present at the April meeting, it was revealed.

BACK TO BOOKS

Back to their studies at the University of California in Berkeley are Jerry Cook, Jim Babbitt, Tom Pryor, and Don Babbitt, who returned to the northern campus last Sunday after spending spring vacation with their families here in Torrance.

Banquet Set At Lutheran

The annual Mother and Daughter Banquet sponsored by the Helping Hand Circle of the Park View Lutheran church, will be held Friday, May 6, at the social hall of the New Olivet Lutheran church on Imperial near Crenshaw boulevard.

According to Mrs. William Henshaw, general chairman for the banquet, special speaker for the evening will be Mrs. Joseph Girtz, wife of Rev. Joseph Girtz, who will speak on life in the missionary field in India where she and her husband served.

Mothers and daughters interested in attending may call Mrs. Ted Youngs at DA. 9-5396 for reservations.

Card Party Slated at St. Andrew's

St. Cecilia's Guild of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's church, is sponsoring a bridge-canasta party on Wednesday evening, May 11, at 8 p.m. at the church, 1432 Encarnacion avenue, Torrance.

The party is open to the public, and those wishing further information may call the parish office at FA 8-3781, or Mrs. Robert Sleeth at FA 8-2134.

Homemade cake and coffee will be served during the affair planned to supplement payment of the rotary floor waxer recently purchased by the Guild for the church.

JEWISH CENTER EVENTS SLATED

A social and card party was held on Saturday April 23 at the Gardena Teen Age Center under the auspices of the Men's Club of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center.

Members and their friends will attend on the annual Men's Latke Party June 4, Teen-Age Center 1651 Market street, Gardena.

The affair will feature professional entertainment, dancing, prizes, and refreshments.

The annual Mother's Day Luncheon given by the members in honor of their mothers will be held this year on May 10 at the home of Mrs. Ida Levy, 14783 Suro, Gardena. This affair will take the place of the regular monthly sisterhood meeting.

Members of the Cornelia club were entertained recently at a dessert and bridge at the El Prado avenue home of Mrs. W. I. Laughton.

Delphian Society Continues Topic

Kappa Chapter of the Delphian society will hold its next regular meeting on Thursday morning, May 12, at 10 o'clock at Torrance library.

Continuation of the topic "The Total Personality" is planned, with the discussion focusing on "Adolescence and Adulthood." Mrs. Fred Sullivan Jr., will be chairman for the day. Opening speakers will be Mesdames D. J. Quinlivan, Walter G. Smith and H. G. Babcock.

Inspiration Hour meets Wednesday at 1 in the Classroom. The public is cordially invited.
