Breaks Back In Collision

Mrs. Mildred M. Marong, 65, of Redondo Beach, received a broken back when the car in which she was a passenger collided with a garbage truck at 174th street and Western Friday.

Driver of the car was her husband, Edwin S. Marong, 75. The truck, which turned over on the car, was driven by Robert L. Jones, 21, of Los Angeles.

Marong was attempting a left turn at the time of the collision, according to California Highway Patrol officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Agishian, 17020 Atkinson Ave., announce the birth of a son, Nick Melvin, weighing 8 pounds.

SCHOLARSHIP . . . Miss Ann Steinbaugh, accompanied by Torrance high school Principal W. B. Magner Jr., is presented with the Scholarship Award Certificate by D. M. Sowle, industrial relations superintendent at the National Supply company, Torrance.

Management Club Awards Scholarship

Miss Ann K. Steinbaugh, Torrance high school senior, was the winner of the National Supply Management club scholarship award of 1955, for her 500-word essay, "What High School Courses Give the Best Preparation for Leadership in Industry."

In promoting this scholarship award competition each year, the National Supply Management club as well as the National Association of Foremen, with which they are affiliated, is desirous of assisting ambitious and worthy students in obtaining further education that will better prepare them for a future in industry.

Presentation of the Certificate of Award was made by Superintendent of Industrial Relations, D. M. Sowle. A check for $200 was presented by Club President Clyde Field and Scholarship Chairman John Hall. Miss Steinbaugh also earned the privilege of competing with other high school winners for the $500 zone A scholarship award, sponsored by the National Association of Foremen.

Cosmetology Honors Won By Instructor

One of 65 members of the California Cosmetologist's association, Mrs. Beulah Grace, cosmetology teacher at El Camino college, was presented a plaque by the Hollywood Hair Design council last week, Dr. William H. Harless, director of instruction, announced today.

Presentation of the plaque, awarded to Mrs. Grace for her "outstanding work in hair styling" was made at the annual beauty show conducted at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles.

Prior to being accepted as a member of the honorary organization, Mrs. Grace took an extensive test.

Mrs. Grace recently presented hair-styling demonstrations in Fresno, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. She has been an instructor of the cosmetology department at El Camino college for the past four years.

UMT Topic Of Methodist Speaker

Continuing the Sunday series on social questions, the Rev. George Warner of Altadena will speak at the First Methodist church, 1551 El Prado, Torrance, on May 15, at 7:30 p.m. on the theme of "Universal Military Training."

Warner recently completed six years as district superintendent of the Los Angeles district, and was formerly pastor of the First Methodist church of San Diego, California.

"The question of universal military training needs to be understood and discussed," said Rev. Taylor, announcing the coming of Dr. Warner. "The people have a right to know the background, the pressures, and the issues involved in actions of congress that affect everyone of us."

The Methodist Men of the church, Page Hurley, president, will be in charge of the evening and Jack Stock will introduce the speaker.
